I'M AFTER THEM!

I'M AFTER THEM!

Look out for the sleek tongued varments that tell you the Advance is not the best machine in the market. Those that tell you falsehoods are not worthy of being called by any other name. The ADVANCE is guaranteed to do more and better work than any other machine in the market, and is the only machine on the Coast that has NEVER been replaced by other machines. Other dealers have offered new machines for an ADVANCE that has been run two years and have given parties to understand they would give differences, but were told that the ADVANCE, after two years' run was still much better than old fogy machines if they were new. And if the ADVANCE engine is not the best traction engine, why is it that I have sold TWELVE on the West Side between Portland and Corvallis this year?

The "Wrecked" Bark Towed Safely Into Astoria.

THE COLFAX PACKERY BURNED

A Montana Man Struck by Lightning and Killed.

WATER WORKS FOR M'MINNVILLE

A Sawmill Burned—A Brutal Fight for a Bottle of Whisky—Death of an Aged Pioneer Woman

ASTORIA, Or., July 25.—As surmised, the vessel sighted off Easterbrook's last evening was the British bark Janet Ferguson from Victoria in ballast. The vessel arrived in all right this morning in tow of the Escort.

Captain McGibbon says he left Victoria last Saturday for the Columbia river. When he got down to the straits, the weather shut in very thick and it was so foggy that he could not make out his position. At 7 yesterday morning he found the current was carrying the vessel toward shore, and came to anchor not knowing what part of the coast he was on. During the day he tried to land in a small boat, but though the sea was smooth where the vessel lay, there was too much surf.

The crew fished all day and caught many groupers and rock cod. At 7 P. M. a light breeze sprung up and they hove up anchor and stood off shore to try to find a light.

At 12:30 this morning the tug came alongside, and the vessel arrived at Astoria at 8 this morning.

The vessel was not on her beam ends and was not in any trouble at any time.

THE COLFAX PACKERY BURNED.

It Was a Handsome Brick Structure and the Loss is $14,000.

COLFAX, W. T., July 25.—The handsome brick packing house of the Colfax Packing Company was almost entirely destroyed by fire at 9 o'clock last night. In the building were 7000 pounds of bacon and several tons of lard, most of which is damaged. The brick walls remain intact. It is not known how the fire started, but was either incendiary or caught from sparks from the foundry near by. The loss is $14,000; insurance, $6000. The fire department did excellent work, and saved much of the meat. It will be rebuilt.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING.

A Section Foreman Killed and Five Men Prostrated.

BUTTE, July 2[illegible].—John Moriarty, a section foreman on the Montana Central railroad, while at work on his section about five miles from Elk Park station, was struck by lightning about noon to-day and instantly killed. He had a spike maul in his hand and was standing about ten feet from his men when the stroke descended. All of his men (five in number) were severely shocked, one or two being thrown violently to the ground and rendered insensible, but they soon recovered. Moriarty was struck near the heart. The electrical current followed down his left leg and tore his shoes and stockings into shreds. His watch chain was burned in two and the case of his watch was melted.

WATER WORKS FOR M'MINNVILLE.

The Supply To Be Taken From the Yamhill River.

MCMINNVILLE, July 25.—The city council has finally decided to take Yamhill river water for city water works and have advertised for bids for a system of pumping, complete, to cost not more than $20,000, the amount allowed by the last legislature. The work is to begin August 20 and be pushed to completion.

A SAW MILL BURNED.

With a Large Quantity of Hardwood Lumber.

JEFFERSON, Or., July 25.—The hardwood saw mill of F. C. Rounds, located near the mouth of the Santiam in a big body of ash and maple, burned very early this morning with a large quantity of hardwood lumber. It was a well arranged mill and the only one of the kind on the Willamette. It is reported that there is no insurance.

A BRUTAL FIGHT IN MONTANA.

A Man With a Bottle of Whisky Roughly Handled by Ruffians.

BUTTE CITY, July 25.—A fight took place at Centerville last night, in [illegible] saloon, which for brutality and cowardice is without equal.

Pete McDermott had just bought a bottle of whisky and started for his home at Walkerville. He was set upon by five men, who wanted the whisky, one of whom struck him on the head with a beer bottle while another plunged a knife into his left side. After he was down they continued to beat and kick him. Mike Murphy, a friend of McDermott's, came along, and attempting to interfere, the ruffians next attacked him, and also beat him with bottles and kicked him.

A crowd of men now interfered and Sheriff Lloyd was telegraphed for. As soon as possible the sheriff and a deputy got to the scene, but the fight was over.

Murphy's injuries are principally about the head and face. All efforts to find out who the men were that made the assault have been unsuccessful.

FROM SALEM.

Death of an Aged Pioneer Woman—Election of Teachers.

SALEM, July 2[illegible].—Martha Hall, aged 84, a pioneer of 1846, mother of ex-Sheriff Lark Hall of Polk county and grandmother of Sheriff Croisan of this county, died to-day at the home of her son, B. F. Hall, of Croston.

The school board of this district elected teachers this afternoon as follows: City superintendent, S. A. Randle. Teachers of the East school—Percy Willis, assistant superintendent; Miss Florella Phillips, Mrs. Sarelia Grubb, Miss Theo Van Wagner, Miss Lilly Litchfield, Miss Maria T. D'Arcy, Miss Mattie McNary, Miss Jessie Northup, Miss A. Melon, Miss Grace Gillingham, Miss Lotta Allyn, Miss Maggie Coster. North Salem—principal, J. A. Sellwood; assistant, Mrs. M. A. Rork. South Salem—principal, Miss Mary Hill; assistant, Miss S. K. Dearborn. Miss Hill has been a teacher here before and has also been a teacher in Portland. Miss Allyn is a graduate of the university here. The others are former teachers here.

The following notaries public were appointed to-day by the governor: W. W. Butler and I. A. Stephens, Jasper; C. Morrow and Theodore J. Guisler, Portland, and J. T. Watson, Dayton, Yamhill county.

FROM CHEHALIS.

Burglars at Work—A Protest for the Olympia Convention.

CHEHALIS, July [illegible].—Last night some miscreants entered two saloons here and tapped the tills, but secured very little money. In a second compartment of one of the tills was a gold watch and other valuables, but the thief evidently was not accustomed to his profession and failed to find them.

A PROTEST.

The Lewis county bar held a meeting yesterday and adopted a memorial to the constitutional convention setting forth that the proposed districting of Lewis with other counties in judicial matters would be very inconvenient, and asking that Lewis be given a separate superior judge.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. N. B. Coffman and Mrs. Tygh, who have been visiting in the East some weeks, returned home yesterday.

R. A. Newland, a musician of celebrity of Indianapolis, Ind., and principal of the state school for the blind, is visiting relatives in Chehalis.

Hon. John B. Allen was in Chehalis yesterday looking after his political fences.

THE GALLATIN CANAL.

Reclamation of a Large Tract of Fertile Land in Montana.

HELENA, M. T., July 25.—The completion of the great Gallatin canal marks an era in the history of Montana and is an example of what can be done in that line to furnish water to the farmers for irrigation purposes. This enterprise is one of the most important of any that has been undertaken in the territory.

The source of the canal is at the point where the Gallatin river issues from the mountains, running a distance of about twenty-two miles to a point near Bozeman, through the richest valley in Montana. The flow was turned on in time for the farmers to use the water for irrigation this season, and the result has been the production of bountiful crops. Enough water has already been rented to insure a good income on the investment, and next season about twice as much water will be required to furnish the demand.

The engineering difficulties have been great, many of the cuts on the line are thirty feet deep in boulders and hard cement ground. A stream of water containing not less than 7000 or 8000 inches has been flowing out upon the thirsty soil of the farmers, and as it contains over 200,000 miners inches at the lowest stage of the river, there can never be any chance for litigation over water rights.

Capitalists in the East and in Helena are forming plans to build canals of this character in other sections of the territory, and the irrigation problem will soon be solved. Rain will not be necessary. Artesian wells are also being sunk with success.

FROM SEATTLE.

A Victory for the Japanese Wrestler—A New Railroad.

SEATTLE, July 23.—Matsada Sorakichi and W. H. Quinn wrestled to-night for $500 and the Jap won after a hard contest. Quinn is tall and heavy, weighing 167 pounds, while the Jap weighed but 153. The match was Græco-Roman. Quinn forced the struggle and threw the Jap by arm hold and half nelson in eleven minutes. In the second round Matsada secured a cross buttock and head hold, turning Quinn completely over and throwing him in five seconds. Quinn's head struck heavily on the stage, and he was helped to his feet by his second. He was nearly insensible and could not respond to the call of time for the next round. The match was awarded to Matsada.

ANOTHER RAILWAY ENTERPRISE.

Work will begin to-morrow on the railroad from Union bay on Lake Washington to a point on the lake twelve miles south, a large part of the road being within the city limits. It will be a standard gauge track and equipped with light locomotives. The entire road is on the east side of the crest of hills that run through Seattle. San Francisco and local capitalists are promoters of the scheme. The company will file articles of incorporation under the name of the Seattle Railroad Company.

FROM ELLENSBURGH.

The Capital Question—A Petition for High License—Etc.

ELLENSBURGH, W. T., July 25.—There is considerable indignation in Ellensburgh over the effort of Olympia to permanently locate the state capital at that place without submitting the question of location to the people. It is the desire of Ellensburgh and its friends that an honest vote of the people should decide the permanent capital location, and they are willing to abide by the decision of the popular vote. This, they say, is the only fair way to decide the matter.

Before the fire Ellensburgh had nineteen saloons occupying nearly an entire block on one of the principal streets. At a meeting of the city council last night a petition was presented by four leading saloon men asking that licenses be increased to $1000 a year. Heretofore the license has been $500.

The burnt district is now covered with all kinds of building material and is a scene of great activity in rebuilding. It is estimated that fully $1,000,000 will be expended this fall in new buildings of every description, but more particularly brick.

The steam fire engine ordered before the fire reached here to-day from the East and is the finest of the kind in Central Washington.

Immigration from the East is very heavy. Every section is filled. This portion of Washington is attracting a great many. The great iron and coal interests in this section are not attracting the attention of Eastern capitalists.

FROM ARLINGTON.

A Large Gang of Tramps Driven Out of Town.

ARLINGTON, Or., July 25.—About fifteen or twenty tramps struck town this morning and commenced a systematic course of working the people for food, old clothes and money. The citizens put up with their presence until this evening, when a number of young men headed by Marshal [illegible] waited on them and asked them to leave. Seven or eight started west without any words and the others scattered along the river, claiming they were east bound. Two of these fellows acknowledged to having been here five years ago, when the town was burned, but they finally all left. It is supposed this is the same gang that was driven out of Spokane Falls some days ago.

A farmer named H. C. Hurlburt, living near town, was arrested and brought into town to-day for making an assault on a 16-year-old boy named H. [illegible] with a pitchfork. He waived examination and was held to bail in the sum of $[illegible].

TACOMA NEWS ITEMS.

The Hospitalities of the Chamber of Commerce Proferred to "Sunset" Cox.

TACOMA, July 25.—At the meeting to-day of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, a committee composed of I. F. Samson, John McCready and Mayor Wheelwright, was appointed to call upon "Sunset" Cox and ask him to appoint an evening most convenient to him to receive the hospitalities of the chamber.

David L. Lattin, the murderer of Charles C. Grant, who was brought to Tacoma last night and placed in the county jail, has engaged as counsel Judge Sears and W. J. Sessions. By advice of his counsel, he refuses to talk to reporters. It is understood that Lattin's plea will be self defense.

Hon. A. H. Cannon of Spokane Falls, who has been spending a week in Olympia, arrived in the city this morning. He returns to Spokane to-morrow. Mr. Cannon is a leading candidate for United States Senator from Eastern Washington.

TO SECURE RIGHT OF WAY.

Proceedings Instituted by the Northern Pacific and Montana.

BUTTE, July 25.—In order to obtain right of way into the city the Northern Pacific and Montana Railroad Company will have to fight for almost every inch of the ground. As soon as it became known definitely where the course of the proposed road was to be, a number of persons located claims directly on the line of the route, and the company has made repeated efforts to effect a settlement with these parties and has failed invariably. Having become tired of these futile attempts at an amicable adjustment the company has begun condemnation proceedings in the district court.

THE OREGON PACIFIC.

A Denial of the Report That Work Had Been Suspended.

ALBANY, Or., July 25.—Antonelle & Doe, contractors on the Oregon Pacific railroad, state that there is no truth in the report that work has been stopped on the eastward extension of the road. A gang of Chinamen engaged in surfacing up the end of the track have quit, that work being finished, but Antonelle & Doe have 150 white men at work on their thirty mile contract, and they will put on a force of Chinamen next week, white laborers being scarce. Work on their contract will be vigorously pushed until completed.

A Case of Smallpox at Seattle.

SEATTLE, July 25.—Charles Staugaarden, a Norwegian recently from Minnesota, applied for admission to Providence hospital this afternoon. His face was covered with smallpox pustules and he was sent to the pesthouse. He contracted the disease before coming West.

CALIFORNIA NEWS ITEMS.

Their Appointments Were Not Confirmed.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Judge Wallace to-day, in the suit of Oliver Eldridge and E. W. Travers, to remove A. C. Freeze and Martin Bulger from the office of pilot commissioner for San Francisco, decided in favor of the defendants. The defendants were appointed by Governor Bartlett, but Governor Waterman appointed the plaintiffs to fill their places. The senate, however, refused to confirm their appointment, and after its adjournment the governor reappointed them. Judge Wallace decides that the senate must confirm to make their appointments valid.

Purchased by the Union Pacific.

REDDING, July 2[illegible].—It is stated that representatives of the Union Pacific railroad have purchased a tract of land in the town of Roberts, nine miles east of here. Roberts is directly on the surveyed route of the prospective railway, and it is declared that the land purchased will be laid out as a [illegible] reservation and switch yards. It is reported also that tracts of land have been bought in Alturas and Boise City, Idaho, for the same purpose.

An Old Man Commits Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, July [illegible].—Julius Orgal, an old man broken down in health and spirits, was found this morning suffering from an overdose of laudanum. He died after being removed to the hospital. A letter was found showing that he intended to commit suicide.

Shipping.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Arrived—Steamer Oregon, Portland; ship Ivy, Nanaimo.

THE NATIONAL GRANGE.

The Next Meeting Will Be Held at Sacramento.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—From a private dispatch received this afternoon, dated Paw Paw, Mich., it is stated that at the meeting of the executive committee of the National Grange Association to-day it was unanimously voted to hold their next annual session at Sacramento, Cal., to commence November 16. Arrangements will be made by the State Grange Society and the California State Board of Trade to entertain the visitors.

Pullman reservations made for all points East via the Northern Pacific Railroad Office, No. 121 First St., corner Washington.

THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

A Brief Statement of the Principles of Freedom.

AN EVENTFUL DAY AT OLYMPIA.

Report of the Committee on State and County Indebtedness.

THE CREATION OF NEW COUNTIES

Dr Minor of Seattle Shows a Woful Lack of Good Taste—The Convention Changes Its Mind Several Times.

OLYMPIA, W. T., July 25.—The convention met at 9 o'clock, the president in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Lee of Olympia.

Roll-call showed that all were present except Gowey and Turner and those excused.

The records were read, corrected and approved.

The president submitted a telegram on behalf of the Seattle Board of Trade, indorsing the memorial of the Olympia Chamber of Commerce relative to corporations, and signed Bailey Gatzert and George B. Adair; referred to the corporations committee. Also a telegram from Dr. H. T. Turner of Walla Walla, suggesting an article to provide that each county provide labor for its own convicts on the highways if possible, county organizations.

Mr. Van Name by request submitted a memorial against woman suffrage quoted from Professor Goldwin Smith, as published in THE OREGONIAN of the 8th of February, 1889. The president referred it in the usual course to the committee on elections.

Mr. Sharpstein declared that it was not worthy of reference to any committee and moved that it be laid on the table; so voted.

Mr. Newton presented a petition of district assembly [illegible] of Seattle asking a place in the constitution for provisions for secret ballots, elective officers, minority representation, submission of laws to a popular vote upon a one-third vote of the legislature, municipalities to own public industries and conveniences, taxation of used and unused land, reservation of tide lands, etc., by the state forever, no detective agencies, the people to peaceably assemble and petition for redress of grievances, annual session of the legislature, and an expeditious method of amending the constitution. The clerk was ordered to refer these several requests to proper committees.

Mr. Kinnear said the majority report of the corporations committee was ready, and that the minority report was nearly so.

INDEBTEDNESS.

The Committee in Charge of That Subject Reports the Following Article.

Mr. Browne submitted the report of the committee on state, county and municipal indebtedness, recommending the following article, which was ordered laid over and printed under the rules:

SECTION 1.—The state may, to meet casual deficits or failures in its resources, or for expenses not provided for, contract debts, but such debts, direct and contingent, singly or in the aggregate, shall not at any time exceed $400,000, and the moneys arising from the loans creating such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which they were obtained, or to repay the debt so contracted, and to no other purpose whatever.

SEC. 2.—In addition to the above limited power to contract debts, the state may contract debts to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, or to defend the state in war, but the money arising from the contracting of such debts shall be applied to the purpose for which it was raised, and to no other purpose whatever.

SEC. 3.—Except the debts specified in sections 1 and 2 of this article, no debts shall hereafter be contracted by or on behalf of this state, unless such debt shall be authorized by law for some single work or object to be distinctly specified therein, which shall provide ways and means, exclusive of loans, for the payment of the interest on such debt as it falls due, and also to pay and discharge the principal of such debt within twenty years from the time of the contracting thereof. No such law shall take effect until it shall at a general election have been submitted to the people and have received a majority of all the votes cast for and against it at such election. And all moneys raised by authority of such law shall be applied only to the specific object therein stated, or to the payment of the debt thereby created, and such law shall be published in at least one newspaper in each county, if one be published therein, throughout the state, for three months next preceding the election at which it is submitted to the people. The legislature may at any time after the approval of such law by the people, if no debt shall have been contracted in pursuance thereof, repeal the same, and may at any time by law forbid the contracting of any further debt or liability under such law, but the tax imposed by such act in proportion to the debt and liability which may have been contracted in pursuance of such law shall remain in force and be irrepealable, and be annually collected until the proceeds thereof shall pay and discharge the interest and principal of the debt and liability therein created.

SEC. 4.—No moneys shall ever be paid out of the treasury of this state, or any of its funds, or any of the funds under its management, except in pursuance of an appropriation by law; nor unless such payment be made within two years next after the passage of such appropriation act, and every such law making a new appropriation, or continuing or reviving an appropriation, shall distinctly specify the sum appropriated and the object to which it is to be applied, and it shall not be sufficient for such law to refer to any other law to fix such.

SEC. 5.—The credit of the state shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, association, company or corporation.

SEC. 6.—No county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation shall become indebted in any manner or for any purpose, exceeding one per centum of the taxable property in such county, city, town, school district, or other municipal corporation, without the assent of three-fifths of the voters therein voting at an election to be held for that purpose, nor in cases requiring such assent shall the total indebtedness at any time exceed five per centum on the value of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last assessment for state and county purposes previous to the incurring of such indebtedness. Provided, that no part of the indebtedness allowed in this section shall be incurred for any purpose other than strictly county, city, town, school district or other municipal purposes. Provided further, that any city or town with such assent may be allowed to become indebted to a larger amount, but not to exceed [illegible] per centum additional, for supplying such city or town with water, artificial light and sewers, when the works for supplying such water, light and sewers shall be owned and controlled by the municipality.

SEC. [illegible].—No county shall hereafter give or loan its money, property or its credit to or in aid of any individual, association, company or corporation, unless two-thirds of the property taxpayers thereof [illegible] thereon and vote therefor at an election held for such purpose, and in no case shall the sum voted exceed in the aggregate [illegible] per centum of its assessed valuation for county and state purposes as shown by its assessment next preceding such.

SEC. [illegible].—The legislature shall enact the necessary laws to carry out the provisions of this article. Respectfully submitted, [illegible] Blalock, secretary; [illegible] Sturdevant, I. M. Reed, C. I. Fay and David F. Burn.

We concur in the foregoing report except as to section [illegible], and as to that section we recommend that the same be stricken out and instead thereof the following be inserted, viz: Sec. 7.—No county, city, town or other municipal corporation shall hereafter give any money or property, or loan its money or credit to or in aid of any individual, association, company or corporation, or become directly or indirectly the owner of the stock or bonds of any association, company or corporation. J. J. Brown, chairman; James A. Hungate, Charles P. Coey, H. W. Fairweather.

THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

A Crystallization of the Principles for Which Thousands Have Died.

Mr. Warner submitted the report of the committee on preamble and bill of rights, recommending the following, which was laid over and printed:

PREAMBLE AND DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

PREAMBLE.

We the people of the State of Washington, to preserve our rights, do ordain this Constitution.

Article 1.

SECTION 1.—All political power abides with the people, and governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed and are established to protect and maintain individual rights.

Sec. 2—The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land

Sec. 3—No person shall be deprived of life, liberty or property without due process of law

Sec. 4—The right of petition, and of the people peaceably to assemble for the common good shall never be abridged

Sec. 5—Every person may freely speak write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that right.

Sec. 6—The mode of administering an oath or affirmation shall be such as may be most consistent with and binding upon the conscience of the person to whom such oath or affirmation may be administered

Sec. 7—No person shall be disturbed in his private affairs or his home invaded without authority of law

Sec. 8—No law granting irrevocably any privilege, franchise or immunity shall be passed by the legislature

Sec. 9—No person shall be compelled in any criminal case to give evidence against himself or be twice put in jeopardy for the same offense

Sec. 10—Justice in all cases shall be administered openly and without unnecessary delay

Sec. 11—Absolute freedom of conscience in all matters of religious sentiment, belief and worship shall be guaranteed to every individual and no one shall be molested or disturbed in person or property on account of religion but the liberty of conscience hereby secured shall not be so construed as to excuse acts of licentiousness or justify practices inconsistent with the peace and safety of the state. No public money or property shall be appropriated for or applied to any religious worship exercise or instruction or the support of any religious establishment No religious qualification shall be required for any public office or employment, nor shall any person be incompetent as a witness or juror in consequence of his opinion on matters of religion nor be questioned in any court of justice touching religious belief to affect the weight of testimony

Sec. 12—No law shall be passed granting to any citizen, class of citizens or corporation other than municipal privileges or immunities which upon the same terms shall not equally belong to all citizens or corporations

Sec. 13—The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety require it

Sec. 14—Excessive bail shall not be required excessive fines imposed, nor cruel punishment inflicted

Sec. 15—No conviction shall work corruption of blood or forfeiture of estate

Sec. 16—Private property shall not be taken for private use, except for private ways of necessity No private property shall be taken or damaged for public or private use without just compensation having been first made or paid into court for the owner and no right of way shall be appropriated to the use of any corporation other than municipal, until full compensation therefor has been first made in money or ascertained and paid into the court for the owner irrespective of any benefit from any improvement proposed by such corporation which compensation shall be ascertained by a jury, unless a jury be waived as in other civil cases in courts of record as shall be prescribed by law

Sec. 17—There shall be no imprisonment for debt, except in cases of absconding debtors

Sec. 18—The military shall be in strict subordination to the civil power

Sec. 19—No power of suspending the law shall be exercised except by the legislature or its authority

Sec. 20—All elections shall be free and equal

Sec. 21—All prisoners shall be bailable by sufficient sureties, except for capital offenses when the proof is evident or the presumption great.

Sec. 22—The right of trial by jury shall remain inviolate but the legislature may provide for a jury of any number less than twelve in courts not of record and the verdict of nine jurors in civil cases shall be the verdict of the jury and provided, that the jury in civil cases may be waived by the consent of the parties interested

Sec. 23—In criminal prosecutions the accused shall have the right to appeal and defend in person to demand the nature and cause of the accusation against him, to have a copy thereof to testify in his own behalf to meet the witnesses against him face to face to have compulsory process to compel attendance of witnesses in his own behalf, to have speedy public trial by an impartial jury of the county in which the offense is alleged to have been committed, and the right to appeal in all cases and in no instance shall any accused person by final judgment be compelled to advance money to secure the rights herein guaranteed

Sec. 24—No bill of attainder ex post facto law or law impairing the obligation of contracts shall ever be passed

Sec. 25—The right of the individual citizen to bear arms in defense of self or state, shall not be impaired but nothing in this section shall be construed as authorizing individuals or corporations to organize and maintain or employ an armed body of men

Sec. 26—Offenses heretofore required to be prosecuted by indictment may be prosecuted by information or by indictment, as shall be prescribed by law

Sec. 27—The grand jury shall consist of seven men, and five of whom concurring may find an indictment No grand jury shall be drawn or summoned in any county except the superior judge thereof shall so order

Sec. 28—Treason against the state shall consist only in levying war against or adhering to its enemies or giving them aid or comfort No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act or confession in open court.

Sec. 29—No hereditary emoluments, privileges or powers shall be granted or conferred in this state.

Sec. 30—The provisions of this constitution are mandatory unless by express words they are declared to be otherwise

Sec. 31—The enumerating in this constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny others retained by the people

FOR A RECONSIDERATION

Mr Griffitts gave notice of his intention to move for a reconsideration of yesterday's vote, whereby three fifths vote is to be required in the removal of county seats

On Mr Minor's request, the committee on revision and adjustment was authorized to employ a clerk

Mr Gowey presented eleven petitions from as many different churches, all from Seattle, with one exception, for the exemption of church property from taxation, referred to the committee on taxation

Dickey asked suspension of the rules to introduce a resolution providing for submission to the people of a separate clause on prohibition, but the convention declined to suspend the rules

Eldridge presumed that this proposition would lie over, as usual, until to-morrow

The chair—No this is not a regular proposition, only a resolution, which is not now before the house

Mr Dyer—I move its reference to the committee on miscellaneous subjects

The chair—There is nothing before the house to refer

CREATION OF NEW COUNTIES.

Minor, of Seattle, Makes an Ungenerous Attack on a Generous People

The report of the committee on counties was taken up

Mr Kinnear moved to amend section 3 by striking out the words "There shall be no territory stricken from any county unless a majority of the voters living in such territory shall petition for such division" and argued briefly in favor of leaving this matter to the legislature without any restriction

Mr Weir opposed such action

Mr Durie believed the whole of the county to be affected should have a voice and not merely the portion to be stricken off He therefore favored the amendment

Mr Comegys could not see the justice of giving the whole country a voice that would be like a partnership of three where one wanted to get out and couldn't until the other two were willing to let him

Mr Sullivan, of Tacoma, thought it perfectly safe to leave the section as it stood where it both confers a right on parties and establishes a restriction in legislation

Mr Minor said he was convinced that this provision was inserted in the middle of the section out of sight as far as possible by mistake or for a vicious selfish purpose It was a new thing to put into a state constitution and he thought he could see reasons for attempting to get it in there. He had the honor to represent in part a community which had not long since had occasion to bow its head in gratitude to another section of the territory but he now thought he saw a purpose in their action, not perhaps on the part of all of them, for they were noble generous men among them at it, he thought he could see that in sending their flour and provisions some of them at least had a purpose that like a physician they fed us with chloroform only to dismember us.

Mr Sullivan, of Whitman, said that but for the speech of the gentleman from King (Mr Minor) he should have said nothing "That gentleman is entirely mistaken as to what other state constitutions provide As a fact, there are only three constitutions in the country but what have just this provision in it This shows that there was no vicious purpose as charged by the last speaker I think this amendment amounts to very little anyway but if I had been ever so much inclined to vote for it I would not, after the speech and statements of the gentleman (Minor) [Applause which was vigorously repressed by the president's gavel] While I have a tongue that can speak I will not sit silent and hear a committee to which I belong or friends with whom I am acting so impugned

Mr Minor—Did not the gentleman himself in committee offer this section?

Mr Sullivan explained in detail how this matter had come up in the committee and said he had consented to it because he considered it a just limitation, and one that would prevent legislative jobbery A simple restriction on the legislature, that they shall not strike off any portion of a county unless the majority of the voters in the territory affected shall ask for it. If there is any viciousness in this question it is with the other side who wish to leave the matter so that it will be possible for the legislature to be worked in private interests without notice to the parties directly interested"

Mr Stiles certainly hoped yesterday that the gentleman had understood this very simple clause which was taken from the California constitution. "As to the remarks that have been made here, I am not going to allow myself to get out of temper at any animadversion on myself personally If there was any one member of this convention from whom I expected cool, deliberate consideration of this matter it was the gentleman from King (Minor), but I propose to dismiss him and this matter by saying that I believe that before night he will be ready to apologize, at least to his own conscience for the insinuation he has just made here, and so I leave the mantle of charity to cover his remarks. As to this proposed amendment, I will say that I have never seen such willful, blind, obstinate misconstruction as has been exhibited on this matter, both to-day and yesterday It is inspired by selfishness itself and dare not show itself otherwise than as a selfish proposition This clause is not in any sense whatever special legislation, nothing more general in character could be devised It merely says [illegible] legislature, You shall not cut off any [illegible] whatever unless they want to be cut off"

Mr Griffitts said that so far as he was concerned the remarks of the gentleman (Minor) didn't trouble him a bit In fact he felt proud of being termed the lieutenant of so able a chairman as the one he was serving under (Stiles) but he would say that in all the meetings of this committee, although this struggle about a little strip of land between King and Pierce counties has been well known among delegates the chairman (Stiles), has never by word or act or insinuation allowed a single member to even know from him that any such trouble existed As to the very feeling remarks by the gentleman from King county (Minor) he felt as much sympathy for the sufferings of the city of Seattle as anybody but he thought the remarks of that gentleman (Minor) were in very bad taste and should never have been uttered on this floor because they gave ground to others to charge him with error or else a vicious or ambitious purpose He thought that when this matter had been adopted by the committee of the whole and then the convention had adopted all the amendments of the committee, it was time to make some progress and not be obliged to go all over these debates again As to the clause which the other side proposes to strike out if they were allowed to prevail it would leave an unlimited power in the legislature to slice up a county anyway it pleases—How can we be charged with a selfish and ambitious purpose when all we propose is to restrict the legislature so that when I go to bed in Spokane county I may wake up in the same county so that the wholesale slicing up of counties cannot go on at the direction of any unprincipled or selfish parties without even notice to parties residing in the territory"

Mr Sohns favored the amendment.

Mr Buchanan could not see any danger in leaving the section just as it stood It simply restricted the legislature from dismembering a county without its consent. He was sorry to see an exhibition of jealousy between King and Pierce counties, and thought they had better leave that and attend to the fair meaning of the section which was general in its terms and had no special application to either King or Pierce county Mr Sohns was wrong in thinking this clause gave any power to the people to detach themselves from a county All they could ever do was to petition the legislature

Mr Reed, of Whitman moved the previous question upon which motion Mr Durie asked for the ayes and noes and his request was supported by the necessary number The previous question was put and the question ordered by the following vote

Mr J Z Moore moved to amend section 3 by adding to the clause which the convention had just refused to strike out these words "and then only under such other conditions as shall be prescribed by a general law applicable to the whole state.

Mr Stiles seconded the motion He believed the legislative committee would give them a provision to cover this, but even while believing this he was entirely willing to show his good faith by letting this amendment be made right here.

Mr Griffitts expressed a similar view and then the amendment was adopted.

On Mr Godman's motion an amendment was made in the interest of the English language.

Mr Weir moved to reduce the size of cities which could make their own charters from 25 000 to 10 000, lost.

Mr Kinnear moved to further amend section 3 in the clause which he had just failed to have stricken out, as printed above, by changing the word "majority" to "two thirds"

Mr Tibbetts moved to strike out all the remainder of section 3, beginning with and including the clause which Mr Kinnear had failed to have stricken out lost.

THE PAY OF SHERIFFS.

An Unsuccessful Attempt to Change the Decision of Wednesday

Mr Jones proposed to revive the old question of yesterday about sheriffs being salaried or feed officers, by proposing to amend by inserting the two words "sheriffs and recorders."

Mr Griffitts raised a point of order, that this question had already been voted both in committee of the whole and in the convention and could not be again raised without a motion to reconsider

The chair was inclined to overrule the point on the ground that the additional word, "recorders," made it a different motion

Mr Griffitts claimed that the motion was separable and made his point of order on the word "sheriff" alone.

The chair sustained the point.

Mr Jones said he was not here yesterday and would like to vote on this question, and hoped somebody who voted with the majority would move to reconsider

But no one who voted with the majority seemed inclined to accomodate the gentleman.

The chair—The gentleman, if he so desires, can move to amend by adding the word "recorders," but the gentleman did not seem so to desire, now that "sheriff" had been dropped out and said he would withdraw his amendment His solicitude did not seem to extend very earnestly in the direction of the recorder

Mr Power offered an amendment to section 5, restricting the amount of salary to county officers within the amount received by the county for fees.

The chair, referring for a moment to the recent decision, said he had the rules and was satisfied that amendments were in order under rule 37

Mr Griffitts referred to rule 31 which directs the division of any question which is properly divisible and claimed he was right in his protest.

The chair agreed saying that if the additional words made a different proposition, then the amendment would be in order though it included words previously acted on but where, as in this case the additional words did not do that the question was clearly divisible

TO MAKE THEIR OWN CHARTERS

Cities of Five Thousand to Have That Privilege

Mr Reed of Olympia moved to fix the size of the cities who are to be allowed to make their own charters at 10 000 instead of [illegible]000

Mr Browne moved to amend by making it 5000 and argued in favor of the small number

Mr Griffitts favored this amendment.

It prevailed, by ayes 30 noes 27

A CHANGE OF SENTIMENT

Cities Are Not Allowed to Adopt Their Own Charters.

Mr Warner moved to so amend that any city duly incorporated, without regard to population, might be allowed to make its own charter

Mr Godman opposed this

Mr Stiles said he believed the most serious mistake the convention had made in dealing with this report was to reduce the figure from 25 000 to 5000 The true theory is that large cities have necessities and questions to decide upon which small cities don't

Mr Moore was opposed to any special legislation on this or any other subject. He preferred to leave all this matter to the legislature and would like to vote to strike out this whole business.

Mr Warner's motion failed

Mr Henry moved to strike out all of section 10 which related to this matter of allowing cities of any size to make their own charters.

Mr Griffitts raised the point that this very motion to strike out this portion of the section had been made and passed upon in convention yesterday

The chair ruled that by changing the figures from 25 000 to 5000 the convention had made a new proposition of it and a motion was now in order to strike out this new proposition

The roll was ordered called on Mr Henry's motion and it prevailed by the following vote

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention Again Changes Its Mind on the Charter Question

The convention reassembled at 2 o'clock, the president in the chair

At roll call all were present except Cosgrove, Eldridge, Gowey, McReavy and Turner

Mr Power asked unanimous consent to extend the privilege of the floor to Dr. Calhoun, of Skagit county

Dr Minor rose to a question of privilege. It had come to him that some members conceived that in the debate this morning he had imputed unworthy motives to members. In regard to the chairman of the committee on counties (Stiles) he had the highest regard for his intellectual capacity and for his general worth and honesty of purpose He wished to extend the same expressions of opinion to his lieutenant (Griffitts) If any reflections contrary to such an opinion had ensued in his remarks of this morning, he wished to withdraw them He had also made an error in stating that no other state constitution had such a provision Maryland had such a one, and Arkansas has something about the formation of new counties.

Mr Griffitts moved to amend section 10, by inserting all that portion which was stricken out relative to allowing cities to make their own charters. That portion, as reported by the committee allowed such privilege to cities of 25,000 and upwards. Various amendments were offered, debated and lost until finally the figure was reduced to 5000, and the whole was stricken out Now Mr Griffitts moves to reinstate the whole with the figure fixed at 20,000. Adopted without debate—ayes 38, nays 24.

Mr Browne moved to change the figure to 5000

The chair decided the motion lost and that calls for a division came too late

Mr Kinnear again moved to require ratification of such city charters by a two thirds vote instead of a majority vote lost.

Mr Power moved an amendment but having made it under the supposition that Mr Browne's amendment regarding 5000 had been adopted, he withdrew it.

Mr Suksdorf moved to strike out section seven, which provides that no county officer shall be eligible to his office for more than two terms in succession lost by a very decided vote.

Mr Griffitts moved that the article now be engrossed, printed and passed to the third reading but hastily withdrew the motion amid laughter with the statement that he had forgotten his own notice of intention to move to reconsider. Objection was made to such withdrawal, but the chair ruled that not having been stated it could be withdrawn.

COUNTY SEATS

On This Question the Convention Remains Firm

Mr Stiles moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday whereby a three fifths vote was required instead of a mere majority in questions of changing county seats.

Mr Griffitts raised a point of order that such motion could not be made until to-morrow, and that opened a discussion which ended in a construction of the rule that allows notice of a motion for reconsideration to be given on the day following any final vote but only by some member who voted with the majority but notice thus being given then on that day, or the following day, anybody, no matter which way he voted, may move to reconsider A reference to the convention on this question established this construction (except as regards the moving to reconsider by anybody, which was not included) by a vote of ayes 24 noes 19

Mr Stiles's motion to reconsider was put and failed by the following vote

Mr Sullivan, of Tacoma, moved to amend section 8 by providing that no new county shall be formed "except on a two-thirds vote of the electors voting at an election held for that purpose." Debated a while by Messrs. Moore, Schooley and Buchanan, and then lost.

THE ARTICLE ADOPTED

Mr Mires moved that the rules be suspended and the article considered as engrossed and put on its final passage agreed to

The vote on final passage being required to be by a majority of all the delegates elected was taken by roll call All voted for it except Crowley, Dallam, Fairweather, Godman, Gray, Jones, McReavy, Mires, Sharpstein, Sturdevant, Suksdorf, Sullivan P C, Tibbetts, Travis, VanName, Weisenburger, Willison and Stevenson also Turner and West who did not vote

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

An Unsuccessful Effort to Drop the Office of Lieutenant Governor

Mr Weir moved to go into committee of the whole to consider the report of the committee on executive department

Messrs Dunbar, Griffitts, Sullivan of Whitman and Lillis opposed this as a mere waste of time in the experience of the convention on the last article under consideration

Mr Dunbar said it was time wasted

Mr Griffitts called it useless and thought it would be better for the convention to decline to go into committee of the whole

Mr Griffitts called up the regular order, which was the report of the committee on executive department

The president [illegible] and called Mr Minor of King county to the chair

The report and article were read in full

Mr Stiles moved to go into committee of the whole on this article

Mr Moore objected that motion having been already put and lost

The chair ruled that the reading of the report was sufficient intervening business to allow that motion to come up again

Mr Stiles said there were several things to think of. If this was discussed in convention motions to adjourn to all hours and other dilatory motions would be in order and the convention was likely to make much less real progress

The convention went into committee of the whole by yeas 43 nays 9

The chair (Mr Minor), called upon Mr Stiles to take the chair,

Mr Stiles said he was tired out and really not fit for that duty

Mr Crowley was called upon, but asked to be excused

Mr Griffitts was named but he had slipped over the doorsill and was not in the room though his smiling countenance was very visible watching the proceedings

Mr Godman said he never had had any experience in presiding, and asked to be excused when the chair kindly proposed to elevate him behind the desk

Mr Gowey slipped out of the task also on a simple request to be excused but Mr Reed, of Olympia, did not have the terrors of the exalted position so very much before his eyes, and accepted Mr Minor's invitation to preside.

The article was then taken up and on motion of Mr Eldridge the rule requiring reading again in full was suspended

Section 1 was read as follows "The executive department shall consist of Governor lieutenant governor secretary of state treasurer, auditor attorney general superintendent of public instruction and commissioner of public lands, who shall be severally chosen by the qualified electors of the state at the same time and place of voting for the members of the legislative assembly"

Mr Sharpstein moved an amendment striking out lieutenant governor and commissioner of public lands.

Mr Weir claimed the right to have the motion divided and take the matter of lieutenant governor first.

The chair so put it.

Messrs Weir Browne Dyer Buchanan Gowey Moore, Lillis and Cosgrove opposed this and favored having a lieutenant governor

Messrs. Dunbar, Godman, McElroy and Eshelman thought that a lieutenant governor was a superfluity, and favored striking him out

The convention supported the committee report by voting down the amendment. Ayes 21 [illegible]

Mr Mires offered a substitute for this section leaving out lieutenant governor commissioner of public lands and auditor and authorizing the legislature to create any necessary offices in the future lost

PUBLIC LANDS

Sections Adopted After Futile Attempts at Amendment

The second portion of Mr Sharpstein's amendment striking out the commissioner of public lands, was taken up.

Mr Sharpstein thought too many officers were being provided for, and the board of commissioners could manage this matter

Mr [illegible] strongly opposed the amendment and instanced the expenses of Michigan with which he was familiar as proving the necessity for such a commissioner

Mr Weir argued strongly for the necessity and profit to the state of such an officer

Mr Gowey proposed to make the secretary of state ex officio commissioner of public lands ruled out of order as not germane

Mr Buchanan submitted a substitute creating a board of governor treasurer and attorney general, a board of commissioners of public lands like they had in Wisconsin

Mr Weir opposed this substitute and called the attention of Mr Buchanan to the fact that in Wisconsin that board was appointed simply to sell lands and apply the proceeds. In this state the land will be so varied, and its treatment by sale, lease reservation and otherwise so varied also that such a board would not work so well as a separate department with a responsible head.

Mr Cosgrove thought this was one of the most important bureaus to be placed before the people, and it should have a responsible head, and not be made a side-show for some other officials. This was no place to exercise false economy

Mr Gowey opposed the substitute and thought too much prominence was being given to this subject The legislature was the only power to say how and when and in what manner these lands should be disposed of The secretary of state can easily take charge of this whole matter to a good many years

Mr Prosser opposed the substitute and concurred with Messrs. Bowen and Weir in all they had said regarding the importance of a land commissioner Certainly $25 000,000 worth of land was involved and the state ought to have that amount of property well cared for and managed.

Mr McElroy opposed the substitute and favored Mr Gowey's proposition He didn't want these great title land interests given into the hands of any one man

Mr Godman could not comprehend the argument in favor of a land commissioner He had no authority save as the legislature may provide him with it and why not strike him out altogether unless the convention is ready to decide as it ought to, what disposition should be made of these lands, and leave to the legislature merely the duty of providing the machinery to carry out the will of the convention.

Mr Bowen favored an executive head to carry out the decisions of such board of commissioners as was provided and proposed that the officers named in Mr Buchanan's motion should be an advisory board

The chair thought this not in order and Bowen withdrew it for the present

Mr Kinnear doubted if the secretary of state could properly perform these additional duties. As to the duties of land commissioner there was no difficulty in the fact of leaving them to be established by the legislature

Mr Stiles did not think this was the place to provide for boards This simply enumerates the executive officers of the state if there is any public officer who will earn his salary it will be the land commissioner who will have about 2,500 000 acres to look after

Mr Lillis figured up nearly $30 000 000 worth of state lands besides as much more in tide lands, and thought there ought to be a commissioner to attend to all this

Mr Blalock favored the report of the committee without amendment.

Mr Buchanan's substitute was put to a vote, and Mr Buchanan voted for it, but if anybody else did the reporter failed to hear it, and he was watching it.

Mr Gowey's proposition was put into the proper form of an amendment so as to lie before the convention

Mr Eldridge opposed creating a land commissioner before deciding upon a policy regarding lands

Mr Weir opposed making the secretary of state ex officio commissioner of public lands, nor was it necessary to prescribe every detail of an officer's duty before you [illegible] such officer

Mr Bowen told further about the system pursued in Michigan

Mr Gowey said the legislature would attend to details

Mr Gowey's amendment went down in a second, just as soon as the convention got a chance at it

Mr Sharpstein's amendment then came up again, simply striking out the land commissioner but that went the same way without further debate

Mr Mires moved to strike out the word "auditor"

Thirty one ayes and thirty one noes were counted and the chair decided the motion lost

Mr Mires moved that the committee rise and report progress lost

Section 1 was adopted

RAPID PROGRESS.

A Number of Sections Adopted Prior to Adjournment

Section 2 provides that the governor shall hold his office four years.

Mr Sharpstein moved to make it two years lost

Section 2 was adopted

Section 3 provides four years for the lieutenant governor and two years for each of the others

Mr Crowley moved to amend by making all terms four years, adopted, and the section was adopted.

Section four provides a method for returns of elections of governor and lieutenant governor and that contested elections shall be decided by the legislature

Mr Stiles asked if the usual way of deciding such contested elections was not through the courts

Mr Weir thought these particular cases of contested elections ought to be decided by the legislature.

Mr Lillis moved to strike out the last sentence relative to a change of terms of office depending upon the legislature. He thought the state officers should have a fixed date upon which to enter upon their terms of office.

Mr Weir thought that Chaos would arise along with the adoption of this amendment.

Mr Godman could not see the chaos, because each officer held until his successor was elected and qualified, and the legislature could be convened at any time to count and declare the votes.

Mr Weir in explanation of his idea of chaos, said that all had been considered in committee, but they had thought there would be more harmony and consonance if the committee on schedule should fix the dates for the starting of all these terms.

Mr Lillis's motion failed by [illegible] 18 noes [illegible]

Section 4 was adopted by a vote of ayes [illegible]

Section 5 authorizes the governor to require information from officers of state and requires him to see that the laws are executed and this was adopted

Section 6 requires the governor to send an annual message to the legislature [illegible] adopted after striking out the name of general assembly to legislature, on motion of Mr Dyer

Section 7 authorizes the governor to convene the legislature in extraordinary session Adopted

Section 8 reads as follows "In case of disagreement between the two houses in respect to the time of adjournment, he shall have power to adjourn the legislature until such time as he may think proper, but not beyond the regular meeting thereof"

Mr Griffitts moved to strike out this section because it conferred a dangerous power in the governor which in conjunction with the [illegible] of the legislature would give him too much authority

Mr Buchanan wanted no Cromwells in this state and favored the motion

A brief debate by Weir Durie Godman Dyer Stiles Dunbar and others followed

Section 8 was struck out

Section 9 making the governor commander-in-chief was adopted

Mr Stiles moved that the committee arise and report progress yeas [illegible] nays [illegible]

The committee rose and the president resumed the chair

Mr Reed reported progress from the committee and leave to sit again was granted.

Mr Dyer moved to adjourn

Mr Warner invited the convention to listen to an address this evening at Columbia hall by Hon. "Sunset" Cox

THE HELENA CONVENTION.

A Lively Discussion of the Rights of Suffrage

HELENA Mont July [illegible]—After the reading of the minutes Hartman moved to go into committee of the whole to consider proposition No 14 on the right of suffrage

[illegible] objected to going into committee of the whole to consider any propositions, as the convention would have to go over the same matter

President Clark ruled that such matters must be considered by the committee Cooper presided

Hartman moved to amend section 2 by making it compulsory for electors to be able to read and write the English language

Rickards moved to adopt a substitute which he had introduced

Joy's resolution, to the effect that every male citizen [illegible] years of age who has never been convicted of treason, felony, and who can write the English language, is a voter

Hartman said the purpose of Joy's resolution and his amendment were almost identical except that he had attempted to put his amendment in a more concise form. He made a forcible speech in support of his amendment

Courtney said that no wrong had ever occurred in the exercise of suffrage by ignorant people. He was in favor of giving the right of suffrage to every citizen He knew people of wealth who would be disfranchised if Hartman's amendment should prevail

Joy spoke in favor of his amendment superior in some respects to Hartman's, because it had been stated that the provision prohibited persons convicted of treason and felony from voting

[illegible] said the effort to institute an educational qualification was wrong There are people in Montana who cannot read and who cast an honest ballot while a good many that could read and write would sell their votes

Hartman said that to take suffrage away from a man who had become a citizen was wrong

Sargent was opposed to ignorant people having the right to vote

Burleigh opposed the amendment

Judge Knowles said there are many patriotic men who can neither read nor write He was opposed to the amendment.

J R Toole said that Montana had a liberal franchise now and there was nothing demanding its repeal. The amendment, he said, should not prevail

Maginis opposed the amendment

Brown wanted an educational qualification inserted or the franchise taken away altogether

Middleton opposed the resolution. He was surprised that such an intelligent man as Hartman should attempt to spring such a thing It was unrepublican and not in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Joy said a commission should be appointed to examine the heads of the members, including the gentleman from Custer

Braseiton asked Hartman if he lived in Florida instead of Montana would he advocate such a measure

Peck favored the passage of the amendment.

Craven was in favor of America and American institutions. He did not care where a man came from, if he was an American citizen He was willing to give them the privilege of voting The discussion is likely to continue during the afternoon session

When the vote was taken only 11 voted for the amendment.

The woman suffrage question came up next. All afternoon was taken up with speeches pro and con, and yells for adjournment, finally, at 6 o'clock a vote was taken on the proposition that the legislature may submit universal suffrage to a popular vote once in four years It was defeated, and the convention adjourned till to-morrow.

THE IDAHO CONVENTION

A Long Debate on the Majority and Minority Reports on Suffrage

BOISE CITY, July 25—At the opening of the Idaho constitutional convention this morning the special order was the majority and minority reports on suffrage. A compromise proposition was submitted by Beatty, chairman of the suffrage committee, which was accepted.

The convention got to business and proceeded harmoniously until the section was reached which fixes the power of the legislature in amending the suffrage law

At this point President Clagg denounced the compromise section and in some confusion the convention took a recess until 2 o'clock

AFTERNOON SESSION

Judge Beatty admitted that the compromise paragraph was the work of the committee on elections under the advice of eminent men not members of the convention

During the recess the republican caucus had manifested its disapproval and therefore withdrew the proposition entire. The debating force took part in the discussion, which lasted over three hours

The following are the sections adopted

Section 1—All elections by the people must be by ballot. An absolutely secret ballot is hereby guaranteed

Section 2—Except as in this article otherwise provided every male citizen of the United States, 21 years old who has actually resided in this state, or territory for twenty four months, and in the county where he offers to vote thirty days next preceding the day of the election may have the right to vote and until otherwise provided by the legislature women who have the qualifications prescribed in this article may continue to hold such school offices and vote at such school elections as provided by the laws of Idaho territory.

Section 3—No person is permitted to vote serve as a juror or hold any civil office, who is under guardianship, an idiot, or insane, or who has at any place been convicted of treason, felony, embezzlement of the public funds, bartering or selling his vote, or purchasing or offering to purchase the vote of another, or other infamous crime, and who has not been restored to the rights of citizenship, or who at the time of such election is confined in prison on conviction of a criminal offense, or who is a bigamist, or a polygamist, or is living in what is known as patriarchal, plural, or celestial marriage or in violation of any law of this state or of the United States forbidding any such crime, or who in any manner teaches, advises, counsels aids, or encourages any person to enter into bigamy, polygamy or such patriarchal, plural or celestial marriage, or live in violation of any such law, or to commit any such crime, or who is a member of or contributes to the support aid or encouragement of any order organization, association corporation or society, which teaches, advises, counsels, encourages or aids any person to enter into bigamy, polygamy, or such patriarchal or plural marriage or which teaches or advises that the laws of this state prescribing rules of civil conduct are not the supreme law of the state nor shall Chinese, or persons of Mongolian descent not born in the United States, or Indians not taxed who have not severed their tribal relations and adopted the habits of civilization either vote or serve as jurors, or hold any civil office.

IDEAL BROILING.
Broiling can be done in the oven of the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door, more perfectly than over the live coals.
Lay the steak, chops, ham or fish on a wire broiler or meat rack, placing it in an ordinary bake pan to catch the drippings.
Allow it to remain in the oven with the door closed 15 or 20 minutes. No turning is required. At the end of this time it will be found nicely cooked ready to serve. THIS IS THE IDEAL WAY TO BROIL MEATS.
There is no taint of coal-gas or smoke, and the meats are more tender and better in flavor than those broiled over the coals.
The convenience of broiling in the oven will be appreciated by every house-keeper, and adds another to the many reasons why the Charter Oak Range or Stove with the Wire Gauze Oven Door should be preferred to all others now in the market.

DR. MINOR'S MISTAKE.

The Incident Regretted by the Entire Convention.

WE ARE ALL PRONE TO ERROR

A Reply to the Recent Prohibition Tirade—A Lecture for Woman Suffrage—Arrival of "Sunset" Cox

OLYMPIA July 25—There was an unfortunate speech made in the convention to-day by Delegate Minor, of King county, which had the opposite effect of what he intended and defeated a proposition he was championing, by a yea and nay vote of 50 to 17 The question was on the proposition to strike out of section 3 of the report of the committee on county, city and township organization the words "there shall be no territory stricken from any county unless a majority of the voters living in such territory shall petition for such division." This proposition in effect, is in several state constitutions in the country Delegate Minor charged that the proposition was made by the committee either through error or for a vicious purpose He then referred to the old fight between King and Pierce counties (wherein a number of people of the first named county had repeatedly asked the territorial legislature to annex them to Pierce county and been repulsed) In referring to the charity which had been showered by Tacoma upon Seattle in its recent affliction he intimated that some of the parties had fed us as a physician feeds his patient with chloroform, to dismember him." These remarks raised a hornets nest, but the reply made to Dr Minor by the chairman of the committee (Stiles of Tacoma) was so dignified that there was more of a feeling of regret that the King county delegate should make such a remark rather than contempt, as Delegate Minor is well thought of by the convention. The upshot of the matter was that the right of petition was vindicated, and the clause retained by a large majority

The incident was the first exhibition of temper thus far in the convention, and was regretted by all, including the delegate from King himself, who apologized at the afternoon session publicly to Messrs. Stiles and Griffitts of the committee.

THAT PROHIBITION TIRADE.

Delegate Buchanan, of Adams county has sent an answer to the letter of Rev A. C Spencer pastor of the M E church of Pomeroy, W T, in which he says "Your favor of the 20th is received, and in reply I have for an answer as follows The ground of your complaint of my action is evidently based upon a misconception of the entire case and my relation thereto The facts are simply these certain petitions were presented to the convention some requesting others demanding, that a clause be embodied in the constitution of the forthcoming state of Washington forever prohibiting the manufacture or sale of intoxicating liquors within said state The said petitions were referred to the committee on miscellaneous subjects, of which I have the honor to be a member, and were reported to the convention There are seven members of this committee. The majority report was signed by five of the members, and the minority report by two. The majority report recommended that the request of the petitioners be not granted. Had the petitioners asked for the submission of the prohibition question in a separate article, I think that I can say confidently that every member of the committee would have cheerfully recommended that the prayer of the petitioners be granted, but as they did not so ask the majority deemed it unwise and improper to go outside of the record, and recommended that the petitioners be granted what they did not ask—namely, that the question of prohibition be submitted to a vote of the people in a separate article.

"My belief is that when the convention reaches consideration of this subject, they will favor the submission of a separate article nearly if not quite unanimously

"This explanation of the case ought to satisfy any fair minded man that I have violated no pledge, either expressed or implied, that your abusive, insulting and ungentlemanly animadversions on my course of action in the premises is inexcusable, and more particularly so in a man who has the audacity to subscribe himself to such an effusion as Pastor of the M E Church"

NOTES

P B Johnson of Walla Walla has prepared and had printed an address to the members of the convention in favor of the granting of subsidies by counties and a constitutional provision to that effect. A copy was laid on the members desks this morning

Dr G B. Colburn of Skagit was allowed the privileges of the floor to-day He is an old territorial legislator

Hon. A M. Cannon and Judge W H. Calkins left for Tacoma this morning.

Colonel M Kaufman of Tacoma, was a looker-on at the convention to-day

J J. Maloney and D. Hare, of Ellensburgh, are here.

FOR WOMAN SUFFRAGE

Dr Henry B Blackwell, husband of Lucy Stone, and secretary of the American Woman Suffrage Association, lectured at Tacoma hall to night on the right of the ballot for women. Quite a number of delegates were in attendance. Dr. Blackwell is a pleasing speaker and makes an effective argument, appealing to the delegates to keep the word male out of the new constitution.

CONGRESSMAN COX.

Congressman S. S. Cox, of New York, and Mrs Cox arrived here to-night. Mr. Cox was received by the democratic members of the convention. To-morrow night he will address the members of the convention at Columbia hall. It is said that Mr Cox is on a political missionary tour.

The Remarkable Career of a Depraved Woman—A Former Portlander Tells About Some of Her Escapades.

DENVER July 25.—A special from Douglas Wyo regarding the lynching of James Averill and Ella Watson, alias Kate Maxwell, on the Sweetwater last Saturday, for cattle rustling says The man and woman were on their way to Caspar and were surprised by the lynchers near Sweetwater While the crowd was in the act of hanging the [illegible] a man named Buchanan a friend of Averill's appeared on the scene and fired into the mob, wounding John Durbin in the hip The lynchers then pursued Buchanan who rode fifty miles to Caspar and told his story

Warrants were issued for the lynchers and a deputy sheriff with a posse of seven men started for the scene of the tragedy arriving there Monday morning, where they found the dead bodies of Averill and the woman hanging from the limb of a pine tree, their tongues protruding from their lips eyes bulging out upon their cheeks and their faces swollen and discolored almost beyond recognition

Judging from the signs a desperate struggle had taken place on the cliff [illegible] both the man and the woman had fought for their lives to the last

Their bodies were cut down and taken to Healy's ranch where the coroner impaneled a jury The verdict was that the [illegible] met death at the hands of [illegible] John Sunn J R Bothwell, Sam John[illegible] and a man named McLean

The two bodies were then placed in a box and buried on the ranch

The sheriff then proceeded to the ranch of Tom Sunn, who readily gave the names of the other lynchers Sunn was taken into custody and the party went from there to [illegible] where he was also arrested [illegible] that they assisted in [illegible] and when informed they would be taken to Rawlins [illegible] told the sheriff to take a look [illegible] his way back to Caspar as he would likely find six or eight more cattle rustlers hanging by the neck

The two prisoners were taken to Rawlins to-day where they waived examination and were held over in $5,000 bail It is thought Sheriff Watson will reach there some time to-morrow with the other lynchers

All of those who participated in the hanging are among the foremost cattlemen of the Sweetwater valley Durbin lives in Cheyenne and is one of the pillars of the church Bothwell is a son of a wealthy business man and Tom Sunn an old pioneer scout known all over the West

THE WOMAN'S CAREER.

How She Wrecked a Faro Game and Burned the Building.

The great exploit by which Cattle Kate became famous occurred during the early part of last February

On her ranch were some thirty cowboys, who for several weeks had been losing heavily at a faro game in Bessemer the nearest town

Sunday February 17 she found that $1,00 had been stolen from her It is said that she felt no resentment toward the thieves who were her own men, but was convinced that they were being fleeced by two gamblers named Farley and Goodell, who ran a faro game in Bessemer

Half the population of the little town had gathered in the gambling saloon on Monday night when Cattle Kate armed to the teeth and at full gallop, charged into the room Hastily dismounting, with a six shooter in either hand, she walked up to the faro table and ordered the dealer to "Get!"

Her foreman who had accompanied her meantime entered the room and while Kate kept the gamblers covered, explained to the crowd how they had been fleeced and that the faro dealers were running a skin game

When the truth dawned upon the crowd there was a wild rush Farley and Goodell were seized, dragged outside and badly beaten

Ropes were secured and the gamblers were offered ten minutes in which to say their prayers Cattle Kate and Mason meantime secured the room and succeeded in obtaining several thousand dollars

As the two gamblers with ropes about their necks were about to be hanged a touch of pity struck a cord in the woman's heart and she suggested that their [illegible] burned down and that the men be given a chance for their lives

'Give them a horse apiece and start them for Utah' she urged '[illegible] got all their stuff here and if you'll come up to the ranch I'll [illegible]'

The speech saved the gamblers' lives A couple of bronchos were brought and [illegible] with the [illegible] Mazeppa like strapped [illegible] on their [illegible] by the rattle of a hundred pistol shots [illegible] lighted by the bright blaze of the [illegible]

Then [illegible] together Kate [illegible] country for her ranch where the [illegible] with a grand dance

Kate's [illegible] is considered to be purely of a sel[illegible] It is only when she or her cattle were injured that she felt any resentment wh[illegible] her cowboys were looked upon [illegible] menace to the peace and prosperity of Carbon and Sweetwater counties

Little is known of Kate's early life She is said to have been a variety actress in Chicago and went to Wyoming with a man named Maxwell [illegible] the name of Mrs Kate Maxwell though known throughout the country as Cattle Kate

LOUIS EPPINGER KNEW HER.

The Former Portlander Tells of Some of Her Wild Escapades

Louis Eppinger, the well known Pacific coast caterer formerly of Portland who for over three years past has been managing several Union Pacific eating houses in Wyoming and is now in San Francisco, was seen in regard to the notorious Cattle Kate and her tragic death He was greatly surprised when told of the news

"So that strange woman has gone to render her final account," said he "I knew her quite well In February a year ago if I remember right, she came on a wild escapade to Green River where I was running one of the houses She was accompanied by a lot of vaqueros and they had not been in the town long till they were all wild with drink

"Cattle Kate sat astride a wild buckskin bronco She was equipped with a huge knife which she wore at her belt and had a couple of big revolvers A lariat dangled from her saddle horn She rode through the town like a wild woman shouting and discharging her revolvers Now she would shoot at the telegraph poles and now blaze away at random

"The cowboys were good seconds to her They did their share of the shooting and all drank to beat anything The cattle queen took her potions of whisky at the Green River bars just the same as the men

"Kate Maxwell was a large brawny woman with a bronzed face prominent nose and short black hair She looked to me as though there was a trace of Mexican blood in her veins though there might not have been Everybody was afraid of her Even the old timers had not much to say when she was around She could shoot with the best of them, and when in liquor was as bad as any frontiersman I ever saw

"I don't suppose in all the frontier there ever was a woman like her She must have accumulated her cattle pretty quick, for at that time I never heard that she owned many Sweetwater, where the tragedy occurred is over 100 miles from Green River and is in the wildest part of Wyoming

"It is just about where those buffaloes were caught a few days ago by those cowboys Cattle Kate had been over there three or four years It is a hard country and quite different from about Green River where a great many nice people live George Averill who was hanged with Kate, I did not know

"At Cattle Kate's ranch in Carbon county she had a large number of horses, and when she went out riding she did so in a way to startle the natives She rode barebacked as often as any way and could leap on her horse with all the agility of a performer in a circus She was a regular Tartar, and even the bad men of the frontier had to walk the chalk line when she told them to She had a great deal of influence over them and always had a lot of those fellows around her They all drank and gambled together All the men were afraid of her

"In 188[illegible] said Henry Sedgwick of Laramie, who is at the American Exchange "Kate Maxwell lived at Pueblo, Colorado I lived there at that time and knew her well She is not a Mexican woman nor has she any Mexican blood in her veins She is an American

She had lived there four or five years at the time I saw her and occupied a [illegible] on a mesa, above the Arkansas river She did this when she was not down at the saloons and dance houses drinking

"The woman had a history but what it was nobody there knew She was not a bad woman at heart for when she was not drinking she was quite modest and always well behaved It was said she always stood ready to extend a hand toward anybody in need and on one occasion when a poor woman arrived from Kansas City and was stranded Kate gave her $5 [illegible] and went outside and took up a collection

"She made everybody put up Nobody was spared Saloon men merchants and every one gave something She raised in all over $100 gave it to the woman and sent her on her way rejoicing to Denver Cattle Kate was [illegible] when she pleaded for that poor woman and everybody thought if she took such an interest in her they surely ought to

"Cattle Kate had her quondam associates and in due time she left Pueblo with a miner named Ed Jamison, who had made a strike up in the Ruby district and was down there to spend the result of it.

"They went north to Cheyenne and after a few months Jamison returned without her and went back to Ruby Cattle Kate never came back I heard she was in a dance house in Cheyenne for a good while, and finally when I went up to Laramie who should come into town one day but Kate Maxwell

"She was mounted on a bronco and told me she was running a ranch over in Carbon county Several men were with her She did not drink very much that time, and I never saw her afterward.

"When she got into that trouble over the skin gambling game two months ago I saw that she was still on the high road, and I am not surprised that she is dead though I never thought that, being a woman she would be hanged"

TO STUDY THE FOREIGN INDUSTRIES.

Fifty Representative Workingmen Sent to Europe for This Purpose.

NEW YORK July 25.—An expedition of fifty representative workingmen of America under the auspices of Scripps League, started for Europe yesterday for the purpose of studying foreign markets and industries. In arranging the details of the representation all of the leading industries of the United states were included

The selection of these representatives was not made arbitrarily but in all cases was left to the judgment of the working classes themselves, to their employers and to those most conversant with their capabilities As a consequence the party is made up of men and women who while being [illegible] workers in their respective trades are also competent to study the foreign markets and of communicating the result of their observations to the large class of workingmen whom they represent

Altogether they are a fine body of representative American workingmen and will reflect great credit on the people whom they represent

The trip will last eight weeks and will be through England Ireland Scotland Wales Germany and France, with Paris and the exposition as the objective point

RAILS, TIES AND BOLTS.

The Return of Manager C J Smith From Spokane Falls.

Weather Cool—Work on the Rockford Extension—The Mullan Branch—Depot Company—Pleasant Valley Line

Mr C J Smith general manager of the O R & N Co returned last [illegible] from a trip to Spokane Falls and over the company's lines in that region He reports the weather there comparatively cool and comfortable and that it rained a little one day while he was there The drive from Spokane Falls to Rockford was very pleasant and from Rockford down to Garfield and over to Oakesdale, the country is looking green and the crops are in fine condition

Work on the line between Rockford and Spokane Falls is progressing rapidly the grading being well under way, and ties and trestles in place for a distance of ten miles

Nine miles of track has been laid on the Mullan branch and as soon as the track is laid to the St Joe river fourteen miles further the track laying force will come back and lay ten miles on the Spokane Falls line, thus enabling the ties rails etc to be sent to the front and distributed more expeditiously and economically

In connection with the Seattle Lake Shore & Eastern Railroad Company, the O R & N Co has formed a depot company at Spokane Falls and intend to put in a terminal plant there costing over $400,000 Plans and estimates for terminal facilities are now being prepared, and both freight and passenger depots will probably be well under way by the time the road is completed

Grading on the Mullan branch is entirely completed to the St. Joe river There is still some work to be done on the St Joe bridge and there is some grading to be done around the lake, which has been delayed by high water From the Mission to Wallace the grading is finished and work on the grading from Wallace to Mullan is going ahead and there will be nothing now to delay finishing the line so fast so the track layers can go ahead

Manager Smith says the new track on the Pleasant Valley line is all finished and it is the best new track he has seen in the Northwest A time card is being prepared now and it is probable that the line will be opened for business next Monday

The company has decided to build a two-story passenger [illegible] at The Dalles It will be located at the east end of town near the freight depot

DEATH OF CHARLEMAGNE TOWER.

A Resume of the Career of the Noted Millionaire

PHILADELPHIA July [illegible]—A private dispatch from Waterville N Y announces the fatal illness of Charlemagne Tower of this city

Mr Tower was in his 81st year and his death is due to paralysis He leaves four daughters and a son [illegible]

[illegible] Tower was born in Oneida county N Y [illegible] graduated from Harvard [illegible] studied law in New York [illegible] for some time [illegible] going to Pennsylvania [illegible] through many [illegible] in the coal [illegible] and was a director of several corporations He was actively [illegible] the construction and management of [illegible] Railroad and [illegible] board of directors for several years

The great [illegible] successful [illegible] Mr Tower's long business career was his development of the iron resources of Minnesota now known to the world as the Vermillion range It was about fifteen years ago that Mr Tower learned of the existence of iron ore deposits near Vermillion lake a body of water ninety miles north west of Duluth The country was then a wilderness—a forest almost without paths and the exploration was a matter of great difficulty An expedition however sent out by Mr Tower in 1875 [illegible] examination and the report was so favorable that he purchased about [illegible] acres of mineral land near the lake [illegible] were [illegible] to get things into shape and it was not until 188[illegible] that Mr Tower had things in shape for the construction of a railroad He laid out a line of road from the lake to a point on Lake Superior about thirty miles northeast of Duluth called Two Harbors Here Mr Tower bought property constructed docks and improved terminal facilities The mines were opened and a force of men were set at work digging the ore Meanwhile the railroad was being built

All through the winter of 1883-84 a force of 1,200 men were laboring in the Minnesota woods felling trees grading and laying tracks The expenses were enormous but Mr Tower was equal to the demand upon his resources Hundreds of thousands of dollars were expended and not a cent was coming in Through the spring of 1884 the work was pressed with vigor and late in July the road was completed On July [illegible] 1884 the first trainload of ore passed from Vermillion lake to Lake Superior whence it was shipped on barges to Cleveland Before the close of the year 68,000 tons of ore had been shipped from the mines and by 1887 the annual output had been increased to 400,000 tons

On June [illegible], 1887 Mr Tower disposed of his large interests in the Vermillion range to a syndicate On that day in this city Mr Tower handed over to the syndicate the stock and bonds of the Duluth & Iron Range railroad and the title deeds to 50,000 acres of land, and received in turn certified checks on banks and financial institutions to the amount of over $[illegible],000,000

THE TRANSCONTINENTAL LINES.

A Statement of the Situation Made by a Member of the Association

CHICAGO July [illegible]—The following statement of the situation of affairs in the Transcontinental Railway Association was made to a reporter of the Associated Press this afternoon by a prominent member of the association "The published reports as to the terms asked by the Canadian Pacific and the terms offered by the Southern Pacific in the matter of differentials are inaccurate The fact is that at yesterday's meeting the question of differentials was referred to the executive committee for consideration and a report, and by that committee was referred to a subcommittee of four This committee made a unanimous report but it was not entirely satisfactory to either the Southern or the Canadian Pacific and is now held under consideration by the executive committee You may say that the association [illegible] There is a feeling in the [illegible] or two exceptions [illegible] At the same time in the interest of harmony [illegible]

[illegible] to lay [illegible] setting the [illegible] and it is [illegible] under consideration by the executive committee Without [illegible] the interest of harmony they will make some concessions

THE FORT WORTH CUT RATES

Much Consternation Caused Among Railroad Officials

DENVER July [illegible]—It is announced that the Denver Texas & Fort Worth at midnight to-morrow will make a reduction of 15 cents per 100 pounds on first class freight from Denver to New York and the Atlantic seaboard via Galveston and the Gulf of Mexico It is also announced that a further reduction of [illegible] cents will be made within a few days making a total reduction of [illegible] cents Arrangements also being made to extend this reduced seaboard rate to Utah Montana and all Northwestern points

The action of the Fort Worth [illegible] has caused much consternation among the western trunk lines and several conferences of railroad officials in this city were held to-day

Much speculation has been made to the effect this cut will have upon the western freight traffic, and principally upon the lake and canal rates.

Richard Bradley and [illegible] went to Kansas [illegible] ago to visit [illegible] returned home on [illegible] coming via the Southern Pacific [illegible] very pleasant trip Mr Bradley reports [illegible] in Kansas [illegible] rain He thinks Oregon [illegible] the best crops [illegible] over is the most desolate country he ever saw [illegible] no crops

ASYLUM CREEK FILL

The Hawthorne Railroad Company has a force of men at work widening the fill across Asylum creek so it can be used for teams A first the fill was only made wide enough for the railroad but it will be widened to conform to the width of the street This will be a very great convenience since the bridge at this place was condemned and removed, it has been a serious inconvenience to all the people on Hawthorne avenue eastward

A PECULIAR MAN

A large number noticed and remarked about an old and ragged man who left on the south bound train a few evenings ago He was no less a personage, so it was stated than the famous John Wagner, of Linn county who is a very wealthy man, and who has not worked for more than twenty years His appearance was proof positive that he had not known the virtues of soap and water for that time

GONE EAST

Mr C Peddicord a former grocer on the corner of Seventh and Stevens streets left last Wednesday night for Pennsylvania with his family, where they will visit for several months Mr Peddicord has sold his grocery to Mr Staver, brother of G W Staver of Staver & Walker placed all his rental property in the hands of agents, and he proposes to take it easy for a while

BARN BURNED

Yesterday about 11 o'clock Mr George Andrews's barn at Mount Tabor was entirely destroyed by fire The barn stood only a short distance from the house and the fire is supposed to have been caused by a spark from the kitchen smoke-pipe It was not learned whether anything was saved from the barn or not The loss will probably reach $1000

THE ENEMIES OF FRUIT.

Bulletin No. 2 Issued by the Oregon State Board of Horticulture.

The Codlin Moth—Green Black and Woolly Aphis—Fungus—San Jose Scale—Apple Tree Caterpillar—Remedies

The Oregon state board of horticulture is composed of the following [illegible] J L Cardwell Portland state at large J R Wallace Salem Second district J A Varney The Dalles Fourth district Henry E Dosch [illegible] First district E J D Whitman Medford Third district James H[illegible] [illegible] Fifth district

The following [illegible] [illegible] Salem [illegible]

[illegible]

The following bulletin—No. 2—has been issued by President C[illegible] [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

In the [illegible] of the green and black aphis [illegible] bulletin No 1 the following are added as it appears that [illegible] is still [illegible] effectually [illegible] The following resin solution was originally recommended by Professor C V Riley

Four pounds of resin three pounds of sal soda, water to make thirty-six pints Dissolve the sal soda in a few pints of water When thoroughly dissolved add the resin Heat until dissolved and add water gradually For aphis, use one and one half pints of solution to the gallon of water Use at a temperature of one hundred degrees Fahrenheit

The following formula comes to us from the department of agriculture Washington

"Take two pounds of common or whale oil soap one gallon water Heat this solution and add it boiling hot to two gallons kerosene oil churn this mixture by means of a force pump for ten minutes The emulsion if perfect forms a cream which thickens on cooling, and should adhere without oiliness to the surface of the glass Dilute before using, one part of the emulsion to nine parts of cold water"

The following is sent us from Southern Oregon with the assertion that it will kill the last aphis on your trees

Take five pounds of leaf tobacco and boil it from two to three hours in twenty gallons of water Take one gallon of common soft soap and boil in ten gallons of water until thoroughly mixed add the two together and strain Apply by spraying or syringe

And still another comes to us

"One ounce borax one ounce whale oil soap in one gallon of water Dissolve in hot water and apply cold"

There is no question but what the free use of concentrated lye one pound dissolved in five gallons of water applied to the trees by means of a spray or wash, during the winter before the buds start will destroy the larger proportion if not all of the eggs of the aphis that have been deposited upon the tree the autumn previous

WOOLLY APHIS

BLACK SPOT OR FUNGUS

This disease that the apple and pear are subject to is doing a great deal of damage to those fruits in some portions of the Willamette valley It is more apparent and destructive in some varieties than upon others The causes which produce this [illegible] are somewhat uncertain Sufficient to say the [illegible] is mostly produced [illegible] conditions appear to be most favorable [illegible] growth [illegible] by the microscope a mossy spongy [illegible] occupying the skin so as to prevent the development of its tissues and results in checking the growth at that point [illegible] a black spot until deformity When the [illegible] spreads, as it sometimes does over half [illegible] of the apple or pear it renders it [illegible] the fruit to crack open and become corky and worthless The department of agriculture at Washington recommended the use of the following wash [illegible] this fungus to be applied with a spray pump care should [illegible] following the directions or the foliage of the tree will be injured by burning

Remedy—Dissolve one pound of sulphate of copper (blue vitriol) in [illegible] of hot water To this add [illegible] liquid ammonia a little at a time until all the copper is precipitated The liquid is then turned [illegible] All two or three gallons of water and let stand until settled Then pour off the clear liquid which contains sulphate of ammonia—the [illegible] which causes the burning of the leaves Then pour upon the precipitate left in the vessel just enough liquid ammonia to dissolve it [illegible] a liquid of a deep blue color When required for use dilute to twenty-two gallons

SAN JOSE SCALE

This scale is the most destructive enemy of not only the fruit but the ornamental and forest trees [illegible]

[illegible]

The remedy applied to the scale is much more [illegible] than the one [illegible] [illegible] remedies for this scale are [illegible]

No. 1 SUMMER WASH [illegible] for one barrel of fifty (measured) gallons [illegible] 100 pounds [illegible] caustic soda [illegible] per cent ten pounds [illegible] forty pounds tallow forty pounds [illegible] When dissolved place the whole amount in the barrel to be used [illegible] together When dissolved [illegible] the same [illegible] potash and soda in the barrel and stir well for five minutes or so Leave standing for about two hours then fill up with water stirring well as every bucket of water goes in Use the following [illegible], one pound to the gallon of water Apply warm

No 2 SALT AND LIME REMEDY.—(Recommended by I H Thomas) Twenty-five pounds of lime (unslacked) twenty pounds of sulphur fifteen pounds of salt sixty gallons water To mix the above, take ten pounds of lime twenty pounds of sulphur, and twenty gallons of water Boil until the sulphur is thoroughly dissolved Take the remainder—fifteen pounds of lime and fifteen pounds of salt—slack it and add enough water to make the whole sixty gallons Strain and spray on the trees milk warm or warmer This can be applied when the foliage is off the tree and will have no injurious effect upon the fruit buds or tree whatever

THE APPLE TREE CATERPILLAR

There are several varieties of these insects so [illegible] in appearance and in their habits that much confusion is occasioned in trying to distinguish between them These caterpillars are seldom abundant for many years in succession for in times of great plenty their natural enemies multiply with great rapidity Several parasites destroy them and some of the insect feeding birds devour them greedily

REMEDIES—The egg clusters should be sought for and destroyed during the winter months When the caterpillars have become half grown the trees should be frequently inspected early in the morning and the [illegible] destroyed by [illegible]

LA GRANDE'S MARCH.

More Figures Demonstrating the Rapid Growth of the Town

Lumbering Interests Forests of Timber That Will Last Fifty Years—A Hotel Offer—Etc

LA GRANDE July [illegible] 1889 [illegible] some figures were given setting forth the fact that La Grande has made rapid advancement during the past year This fact may be supplemented by the business of the freight department of the O R & N Co at this place for the week ending July 21, which shows the amount of freight received to have been [illegible] pounds and the amount sent out [illegible] For the week ending July [illegible], 2,16[illegible] [illegible] pounds were received and 110,[illegible]02 pounds sent out The amount of freight both received and sent out for corresponding periods last year was, in round numbers, [illegible],000 showing an increase of over 80 per cent in freight business at this point in twelve months These figures point with unerring certainty to the fact that La Grande is rapidly increasing in importance as a shipping station As a matter of fact it is the largest shipping point on the O R & N line outside of Portland.

La Grande's outlook for future growth is most promising and is based on the fact that it is the commercial center of a large scope of productive country and has never been overdone The town is in a condition to make rapid strides as it is behind rather than ahead of the country which surrounds it There has been no business failure in two years and no city indebtedness leaving its citizens free and willing to assist in any public enterprise that presents itself The city charter permits a bonded indebtedness of $100,000 and it is probable that the public credit will soon be called into requisition to forward a number of public enterprises under consideration This is a very probable result as no place was ever known to make any phenomenal advancement without sooner or later incurring a city indebtedness and La Grande will in all probability be no exception to the rule When the time comes however La Grande's bonds will be no second mortgage affairs and will realize something near their face value

Aside from the rich agricultural country which is tributary to La Grande there is the timbered districts of the Blue mountains which depend upon La Grande as the center of supplies Besides the saw mills now in operation there are numerous [illegible] ship an average of a [illegible] and a half [illegible] each day [illegible] on the Short Line and Denver [illegible] The railroad [illegible]

THE SAMOAN DISASTER

Investigation of the Complaints of the Survivors.

LIEUTENANT CARLIN'S DEFENSE

A San Francisco Newspaper Took Up the Charges of a Number of Idlers Who Had Been Courtmartialed

WASHINGTON July 25.—On the 15th of June the San Francisco papers contained the statements of certain survivors of the disaster to the American vessels at Samoa enlisted men on the Trenton [illegible] which if true presented a severe indictment against the authorities of the country especially of the navy department, for cruel treatment and heartless abandonment of the sufferers by the disaster

The papers practically endorsed the statements of the men and reported that about thirty of them were roaming around the water front of San Francisco unable to secure the wages due them destitute and dependent upon charity for their subsistence

The charges [illegible] in substance [illegible]

[illegible]

AN INVESTIGATION

Copies of the newspaper articles were sent to President Harrison [illegible] petition asking that he use his influence to [illegible] done them Attached to this petition was a copy of one of the newspaper articles

These were referred to Secretary Tracy, who ordered an investigation made as to the truth of the statements The papers in the case have just reached the navy department and make the following showing

Commodore Benham of the Mare Island navy yard says The newspaper articles have a grain of truth in them, and a great deal of exaggeration That attack upon Lieutenant Carlin is unjust in the extreme for the reason that he remained at San Francisco by his own request, and was temporarily assigned to the receiving ship, Independence, in order that he might be able to look after the interests of the Vandalia's men and aid them in obtaining an early settlement of their claims

As to the complaints of the discharged men, the commodore says "It is hardly necessary to remind the authorities that men cannot be held beyond the date of their enlistment"

He further furnishes a statement made by Lieutenant Burnett showing the amounts paid to the men who reached San Francisco fifty nine in all These range from $26 81 to $272 08 In no case being as small as the largest amount said to have been paid the men Eighteen of the men are reported as having deserted after their arrival, and of course they received nothing

CARLIN'S STATEMENT

Lieutenant Carlin states that of the nineteen Vandalia men who it was possible "were roaming about the water front," one was discharged at his own request, two were discharged at the expiration of their enlistment, three were discharged by sentence of court martial, and thirteen were deserters

The clothing issued to the men at Samoa was charged to them at a discount of 62½ per cent. It was good clothing that was worn by both the officers and the men

As to the "rag money," it is stated that the government does not sign a contract to pay $60 [illegible] a promise to pay as much as $60 on certain conditions

The lieutenant says "The claims of the men are excessive as a rule The seaman who shipped in January and was wrecked in March can justly claim his pay for two months and no more If he has drawn $60 worth of clothing he is in debt for at least $12 Captain Farquhar could not and did not have an order regarding the amount of money to be distributed to the Trenton's men"

The amount of money actually allowed was one month's pay and the sailor who complained that Carlin refused to sign his application to the fourth auditor was told that it was useless to make an application until the official was in possession of certain data which could not possibly be furnished before the last of July but refused to accept this statement as final whereby the men [illegible] says he did not know that the seaman had signed a blank to be signed

He further says "As to the statement that I will [illegible] his money until I got [illegible] I will only say that I am here in my own [illegible] for the special purpose of putting various [illegible] shape so that the fourth auditor may [illegible] settle the men's accounts. This work is now finished The application for indemnity (otherwise known as rag money) has been made out for all of the men, dead or alive and I have as yet taken no steps toward getting my own money"

In conclusion he says "There are six names [illegible] to the secretary of state McCluskey Stewart, Devine Bleidner Lane and Boyle McCluskey was not at Samoa at all, Lane was discharged by court martial He was on board the Nipsic which was not sunk and he has not the shadow of a claim for anything Boyle and Stewart were discharged by court martial Bleidner and Devine were discharged at the expiration of their enlistment. All of them except Boyle were paid in full but some of them had claims for the loss of personal effects. O'Donnell the other man mentioned by name in the newspapers, was discharged by sentence of court martial The only men entitled to sympathy are Johansen and Schimer They have money due which they cannot get at present The claims must follow in routine in the fourth auditor's office and if I am not mistaken an act of congress is necessary"

GARNETTED WOOL WASTE.

An Important Decision With Reference to its Classification

WASHINGTON July 25—The Treasury Department to-day decided an interesting question regarding classification of the so called garnetted wool waste The question arose on an appeal by J W[illegible] & Co from the decision of the customs officials of New York to assess a duty of thirty cents per pound on a recent import of that merchandise, which they claim to be dutiable at the rate of ten cents per pound

It appears from a special report of the United States appraiser that the merchandise consists of so called woolen waste which has been garnetted or put through some process by which it is practically restored to the condition of unmanufactured wool of the first class

In a letter to the collector Acting Secretary Batcheldar decided as follows "By the department [illegible] of October 1887 [illegible] was on the 14th of July 1888 held that woolen waste which had been broken up and put through a garnetting machine whereby it became practically scoured wool that is to say wool of the first class and costing over thirty cents [illegible] was dutiable as such [illegible] entered at a duty of thirty cents a pound as assessed by you

The [illegible] decision in the case in question is therefore affirmed

CHINESE IN TRANSIT.

The Treasury Department Agrees With the Opinion of the Attorney General

WASHINGTON July 25.—The treasury department has acquiesced in the opinion of the attorney general that Chinese can pass through the United States territory to foreign parts, and the practice of the department, which has been exactly the reverse will be modified accordingly

Instructions to-day were sent to the collector at New Orleans to permit the landing of the Chinese who recently arrived there on their way to China.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, JULY 26.

SUGAR AGAIN.

A democratic paper of Eastern Oregon takes note of the high price of sugar, "due to the manipulations of the sugar trust, protected by the high tariff." It tells us that "the duty on raw sugar yields a revenue of $58,000,000 per annum to the government on an annual importation of about three thousand million pounds," and "the tariff is arranged to give the sugar refiners a profit of one and a-quarter cents per pound as a private tax for their encouragement." Further, "this tax is levied upon the people, not according to their wealth, but according to their use and consumption of the article," and "the burden has fallen upon the poorer classes more heavily than upon the richer, because the former use a great deal more sugar in proportion to their wealth than the latter." The democratic paper of Eastern Oregon says this is "spoliation," against which it "intends to fight wherever it finds it;" and a democratic paper of Western Oregon reprints the article, with many expressions of approval and applause.

Our brethren evidently have forgotten the course of their party last year on this subject. The Mills bill, that embodied the policy and purposes of their party, proposed free trade for wool, lumber, salt and other articles mainly of Northern production, but refused any material reduction of the tariff on sugar, partly because the Southern democracy insisted that the sugar planter should still have protection, and partly because the sugar refiners of the East, with Havemeyer, a New York politician and member of the sugar trust at their head, joining with the democratic planters of the South, opposed any change that would interfere with existing conditions. It was shown that Havemeyer had been before the Mills committee and had objected to any change in the duty that would interfere with the operations of the trust, and that in obedience to the joint demand of the democratic sugar planters of the South and of the democratic sugar refiners of New York, neither of whom the democratic campaign managers dared to resist or oppose, the sugar tariff was left without material change. Readers whose memory runs back to last year will everywhere remember what a sensation was produced throughout the country when the admission was extorted on the floor of the house that Havemeyer had been before the Mills committee, and that the bill, as to sugar, had been adjusted to his liking.

There was no argument so potent against the democratic party last year as the recital and review of its course on the sugar tariff. It was so obvious that the refusal of the party to put sugar on the free list, or to make any material reduction of the sugar duty, was merely political and altogether unjust, born as it was of a desire to favor the democratic planters of the South and the democratic refiners and politicians of the city of New York, while at the same time the products of the North were assigned to the free list, that the whole country rung with criticism and remonstrance. It was so patent, because the hope of democratic success lay solely in the Solid South and in the city of New York, that no one could fail to see it. Defeat of the democratic party overthrew this most inequitable method of dealing with the tariff, and it is refreshing to find democratic papers that one year ago hadn't a word to say against the scheme proposed by their party now denouncing the sugar duty and the sugar trust which their party last year was upholding against nearly all other interests of the country.

THE CONGRESSIONAL PARTY.

Among the original members of the congressional party now in Oregon, we miss Mr. McKinley, the representative from the Twentieth district of Ohio, who enjoys the enviable fame of being the ablest man of his years in either house of congress. He served through the war in the Union army, enlisting when but sixteen years of age in the famous Twenty-third Ohio regiment, which included among its field officers General Rosecrans, ex-President Hayes and the late Justice Matthews of the United States supreme court. He enlisted as a private in May, 1861, and was mustered out as captain and brevet major of the same regiment in 1865. He was the first man at Cedar Creek, where he served on the staff of General Crook, to meet Sheridan and spread the news of his arrival. He was elected to the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth and Forty-seventh congresses, and received a certificate of election to the Forty-eighth, but was unseated by the democratic house; was elected to the Forty-ninth congress, to the Fiftieth and to the Fifty-first. He is easily the ablest advocate of protection in congress, and is therefore really its leader as a thinker, although the brilliant Reed of Maine may be his superior as a parliamentary tactician and as a versatile, aggressive debater on all subjects.

Goff, of West Virginia, like McKinley, was a gallant Union soldier; was secretary of the navy under President Hayes and was elected as a republican from the First congressional district to the Forty-eighth, Forty-ninth and Fiftieth congresses. Congressman John W. Stewart, of Vermont, is about 64 years of age; is a lawyer of the first rank in his state, of which he was governor in 1870-72; he was elected to the Forty-eighth congress and has since been regularly re-elected. He is a gentleman of fine presence, exceptional culture, superior intellect and genial manners.

A COMMON SEQUEL.

Martin, or Lattin, the man who so brutally murdered his friend and room mate Grant at Tacoma a week ago eluded the police of that city and the sheriff of Pierce county, but not the vigilance of the railroad conductor with whom he took passage for this city, and he is now in custody. While many who viewed his bloody work decided that the deed was that of an "insane" man, the murderer contents himself with the commonplace plea of self-defense, alleging that he and his victim quarreled over the "girls they were keeping." He has not, up to date, explained the relevance that his friend's bag of ducats, which he remembered to take with him in his hurried flight, after successfully "defending" himself, bore to the interesting subject of their quarrel or to the manner of "self-defense" that he chose. A charitable public will perhaps decide that he took the money along to keep it from being stolen.

From the history of these men, as brought out since the crime was committed that deprived one of them of his life, and set the seal of the murderer upon the brow of the other, it is evident that they were of those whose social relations keep them constantly upon the verge of violence. Mocking at the restraints of decency; scorning the paths of sobriety, and living lives of gross lewdness, such men are the ready prey of low jealousy and cupidity, and the passions which they engender. Since the lives of such men, being common, excite no surprise their death by violence, being also common, should excite none. There is that in the daily lives of such men, which fosters crime and familiarizes them with it until even its darkest details cease to shock them. Wholly unaccustomed to the restraints of common morality and knowing no respect for law they only wait, what they consider provocation to take life, and then, rallying at the behest of an ignoble fear of consequences they are quick to enter the plea of "self-defense," when brought face to face with penalty.

It has been solemnly proclaimed that "he who lives by the sword shall perish by the sword." Giving it the broad significance intended we may readily conclude that he who lives by, through and in daily companionship with vice and crime meets the fate he courts when he perishes through that medium. Reputable and orderly citizens may and do deplore the sequel that is written in blood, but they, having knowledge of the story that preceded it, can consistently voice the sentiment that may well declare of such a victim, "he died as the fool dieth." Penalty may not, however, be justly turned aside by such a decree, since wantonly taking the life of any human being is forbidden by the law which the entire community is interested in upholding, but the regret that is felt in the death of an honorable, useful citizen does not follow the taking off of the man whose course of life invites and encourages crime.

OREGON REVISITED.

Judge Thomas Nelson, a resident of Oregon from March, 1851, to August, 1853, and since then a resident of New York, surprised his old friends in Oregon by reappearing among them yesterday. Judge Nelson came to Oregon under appointment from Fillmore as a justice of the territory. Oregon then included not only the territory comprised in the present state of Oregon, but the present territories of Washington and Idaho and part of Montana. The district north of the Columbia was assigned to Judge William Strong, and Judge Nelson held his first term of court for Judge Strong, at Jackson's, on the Newaukum, near the present town of Chehalis, in Lewis county. In the early life of a territory the courts always occupy a large place. Other incidents or affairs of importance are few, and nearly all the men of the community are frequently in attendance as jurors or witnesses. Hence the organization of our early courts and the proceedings therein are remembered longer and with more vividness than most other events. Judge Nelson served on the bench till after the change of administration, in 1853, when he was succeeded by Judge Williams and returned to New York. He has been kindly remembered in Oregon through all these years, both as a judge and a man, and his old friends were extremely glad to greet him. At the age of 70 years he is still in good health and looks as if he yet had many years of life before him.

The dry season has not told disastrously upon the grain yield of the Willamette valley, as it was feared a few weeks ago would be the case. Reports from several sections where harvesting has begun show an average yield. In Eastern and Southwestern Oregon the drouth has proved much more trying, fields being literally parched and the grain in many places having been cut for hay. This will at least insure the stock of those regions a winter of abundance. The fruit crop in Southern Oregon is considered fair, though not up to the standard of the past few years. This season has been an unusually dry one throughout the state but it will not, by any means, be one of failure, and people who are blessed with abundance should be able to get along one year without the generous surplus to which they have been accustomed without special hardship or complaint.

It appears from the testimony of experts that death by electricity may not be after all the "rock-me-to-sleep-mother" process that humanitarians are looking for in the interests of murderers. A referee has been appointed by a New York court to collect data upon this subject and several electricians have testified that it is the reverse of what has been claimed for it. Testimony of experts was introduced showing that death by this means is uncertain, citing cases where unconsciousness of many hours had been followed by resuscitation and recovery. Others described the sufferings of animals experimented upon to be lingering and most intense, all of which proves that in the effort to be merciful, mistaken and overzealous men have been exceedingly cruel.

The Paris exposition will be kept open until October. A general election for a new chamber of deputies will then be held. The object of the French ministry in keeping the great exhibit open until that time is to absorb the thoughts of the people outside of politics so that dangerous agitation shall not precede the election. The active and vivacious Frenchman must have something to get excited about and while it is the exhibition, it is not Boulanger and politics.

NEW TO-DAY.

Now that you mention it, I too, am positive that no property on the market will so certainly advance as West Portland lots. It is as near the Court House as Mount Tabor, on best side of the river; healthy and sightly; sold at the nominal price of $120; $10 down and $10 per month; will positively have one motor line and possibly two; 5 cents fare. Some of the lots not in the pool have sold already for $250 each; the pool has 608 lots, 8 of them 80 acre lots, worth now, each $2000; all these go in at same price of $120. No reason why these lots will not advance to $500 and $600 each, and that soon.

SOUTHERN PORTLAND—THOSE DISAPPOINTED in not securing lots in this delightful suburb before all were sold in the 5-acre hill tract, recently platted, will find something to suit them in the tract (four hundred feet south) which will be ready for sale by the 29th; surveyors at work now; lots are 50x100 feet, all cleared and staked and command elegant views to the north and east; electric motor line is now building through this tract, and home seekers and speculators will find this the very best investment in the market; lots sold on easy terms by A. M. ELKINS, 24 Washington street.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING—A SPECIAL meeting of the stockholders of the Real Estate Title & Trust Company, will be held at the company's office, room 7, Third Floor, Abington Block, Portland, Oregon, on Thursday, the 8th day of August, 1889, at 4 o'clock P. M., the object of said meeting is to consider and determine the question of increasing the capital stock of said company to the sum of $50,000, divided into 2500 shares of the par value of $20 each, and to provide for the disposition of said stock. J. THORBURN ROSS, Sec.

E. P. ROGERS, Asst. G. F. & P. Agt.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT IN PURsuance of an order of the Circuit Court of the state of Oregon, for Multnomah county, made on the 20th day of July, 1889, in the dissolution suit of R. D. Freeborn vs. Harry F. McKay, the undersigned receiver of the partnership property of the firm of Freeborn & Co., will sell at public auction to the highest bidder on Wednesday, the 31st day of August, 1889, at 10 o'clock, A. M., at the store of said firm, No. 127 Third street, Portland, Oregon, the entire stock of merchandise of said firm and the fixtures, tools and implements of the same.
J. M. BIRMINGHAM, Receiver.
Dated July 23, 1889.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS—OFFICE OF THE Town Recorder, Medford, Or., Friday, July 19, 1889.—Sealed proposals addressed to D. T. Sears, Town Recorder of the Town Board of Trustees for Medford, Jackson county, Or., and indorsed on the outside of the envelope, "Proposals for the Construction of Water Works," will be received up to 12 M. Thursday, August 15, 1889, for the furnishing of materials and the construction of a system of water works, consisting of the laying of about 4750 feet of 6x4 inch "Converse lock-joint pipe," together with the placing of one "Dow's duplex pump," having two cylinders six inches diameter and ten inches stroke, and also hydrants; and the further construction of a tower and two tanks, said tanks to be of about 20,000 gallons capacity each. Plans and specifications can be seen at the Recorder's office. The Town Board of Trustees reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Done by order of the Town Board of Trustees for Medford, Jackson county, Oregon, the day and date above mentioned.
D. T. SEARS, Town Recorder.
(Seal.)

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS — SEALED PROposals will be received by the undersigned commissioners for the grading and construction of the Long Creek wagon road, commencing at the 44th mile post on said road in Umatilla county, Oregon, and following the present location to the 75th mile post in Grant county, Oregon.

Proposals will be received until Saturday, August 10th, 1889, at 10 o'clock A. M., at which time they will be opened.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a check or bond or other good and sufficient guarantee in the sum of $1000 (one thousand dollars) that the bidder will within eight days after being notified of the acceptance of his proposal enter into contract with the commissioners of the Long Creek wagon road with the necessary bond and sureties for the faithful performance and completion of the work embraced in his proposal.

The work is laid out in 6 divisions, and will be let in whole or any division or subdivision not less than two miles.

Camas Creek division embraces that part of the road to be constructed between the 44th and 49th mile posts.

Bridge Creek division, that portion between the 49th and 54th mile posts.

North Fork division, that portion between the 54th and 58th mile posts.

Meadow Creek division, that portion between the 58th and 66th mile posts.

Granite Creek division, that portion between the 66th and 71st mile posts.

Middle Fork division, that portion between the 71st and 75th mile posts.

All bids must bear the name of the division desired and must state rate per mile for grading and constructing said road as per plans and specifications on file at the county clerk's office, in Umatilla county, Oregon.

Further particulars can be obtained by calling on or writing to L. W. Loehr, superintendent, room 11, Villard House, Pendleton, Oregon.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved by the commissioners. Signed:
J. R. KEENEY,
H. H. DAVIS,

PORTLAND AND VICINITY.

BACK FROM THE BEACH —Officer Jack Kerrigan, of Portland's blooming brass-button brigade returned yesterday from Ilwaco beach, having enjoyed a vacation of ten days within sight of the briny sea. Jack is an old "salt," and he had great time renewing his acquaintance with the finny breakers, clams, crabs and other aquatic things he used to associate with in his younger days. While at the beach he inaugurated several clam digging expeditions to Shoalwater bay. Generally from half a dozen to a dozen ladies accompanied the party. On one of their trips the party took utensils with them for cooking the clams, and it was amazing to see what appetites some of the ladies had. Five of the ladies ate 600 clams, while Jack came in on the home stretch at a sitting with an even 2000. The next day an ... team got the clams that were left.

GET READY, BOYS!—The Portland free bath house is nearly completed and in a few more days the enclosure will resound with the merry shouts of the small urchins who have been patiently waiting for its completion. The building though not a palatial one, will answer every purpose for which it is intended. It will serve as a sea beach for the youngsters who have to spend the long summer months in the city. The rooms will be furnished with all necessary conveniences, such as towels and bathing suits and to-morrow the house will be thrown open for the first time. At a meeting of the original bath house committee the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year T A Stephens chairman, Dan McKercher, secretary, Edward Holman treasurer, E Watkins, D C McKercher and Edward Holman directors.

THEY LOST THEIR DIAMONDS.—The editors composing the Nebraska press excursion, though having had one of the pleasantest trips of their lives have not spared the spicy incidents, pleasant and otherwise, usual to a traveling public. At least two of the party leave with other recollections of the excursion than those of a pleasant jaunt through the country. J. C. Weeter, of the Alliance ..., lost a diamond pin valued at $40 on the return to Portland from The Dalles and Louis ... the chairman of the excursion parted company with a $60 diamond solitaire on the train from Tacoma to Portland. Moral Editors should not wear diamonds.

A MATCH ARRANGED.—For some time negotiations have been in progress for a match between the well-known trotters, Palatine and Little Joe. ... Woolman who has leased Palatine from ... Delashmutt for a year has instructed ... to make a match with Billy Ayers ... the two animals best three in five to harness ... for $5000. He wishes the race to take place at Salem during the fair, or on the Walla Walla or Spokane Falls race track. Mr Woolman means business, and has ordered that the money be put up, so if the other side means business there will probably be a race.

ANOTHER FINE RESIDENCE.—Bids for the erection of a house in Holladay's addition for A W ..., a Walla Walla capitalist, were opened ... the office of Williams & Williams architects ... yesterday. The building will be 58x71 feet and two and a half stories. The bids submitted were as follows A Alfreds $17 000, George W Gardner ... W D Garrett & Co $15 57..., J Foote ... D F Campbell, $14,000, T A Davey $1... Killeen & Co $18,660, Thomas Walker $11 873. These bids do not include the foundation for the building which is already in nor the hardwood inside finish, which is to be very handsome.

THE CHURCHES INVITED.—The popular steamer ... will leave Alder street at 6 30 sharp to-morrow on the grand excursion to Astoria and return. The First regiment band will furnish excellent music for the occasion. A cordial invitation has been extended to the members of the Methodist Presbyterian, Baptist, Y M C A and W C T U to attend this excursion. Round trip tickets are $1 50, children under 8 half price.

LIGHTHOUSE AND FOG BELL.—The lighthouse and fog bell on Warrior's rock this side of St. Helens, is completed and river boats are having the benefit of his timely safeguard. The lower portion of the lighthouse is built of rock in the shape of a pier with the pointed edge pointing up the river while the upper half is made of wood. It is rather unique in construction yet compact and substantial.

BIDS ASKED FOR.—Major T H Handbury has called for bids to be opened August ... for the construction of a telegraph line from Fort Stevens to Tillamook rock. There will be twenty-five miles of land line and 18 000 feet of cable from Tillamook head out to the rock. The line is to be finished within sixty days from the date orders are given to begin the work.

ELMER SWAN IMPROVING.—Elmer Swan who was severely injured about two weeks ago in a fall from a high trestle bridge ... is improving rapidly. He has so far recovered that yesterday he was removed from the Portland hospital to the residence of his father. He ... has little pain and the fractured ... is mending rapidly.

CHINESE MERCHANDISE SOLD.—A lot of Chinese merchandise seized by the customs officers some time since comprising Chinese clothing, ... rice and medicines ... was sold at auction at the bonded warehouse ... yesterday. ... enough to pay the duties on the ...

REAL ESTATE EXCHANGE.—... meeting of the exchange ... will be held this evening at the ... rooms, southwest corner of Second and Washington streets at 3 ... Thirty firms have become members and the number is steadily growing.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS.—E T Simmons the grocer at the corner of East Park and Morrison streets, has sold out his business to M ... Evensen of California who will continue the grocery business at the same stand. Mr Evensen expresses great confidence in the future of Portland.

BY THE CAR LOAD.—Watermelons and cantaloupes continue to come in by the car load from California. They are hardly up to the usual standard. Oregon melons will be in market on August 8. They will be larger than those from California.

BURNS & OGDEN cash grocers have removed to their new and elegant quarters Nos. 69 and 70 Alder street, between Third and Fourth where they now have the largest and most complete stock of groceries to be found in the city. Call and see them.

COMMENCING Sunday July 28 the O R & N Co's steamer R. R. Thompson will leave Astoria at 1.30 P M. Sundays instead of 7 A M. No stops will be made on this trip between Astoria and Portland.

IN GREAT DEMAND.—The new color work that I. W. Moore, the photographer, is giving away is creating a large demand for his photo work. See samples in his showcase at 90 Washington street.

BALL AT LONG BEACH.—The first grand ball of the season will be given at Long Beach hall Saturday evening July ... The ... Potter arrives in time for the dance.

BOYS' SUITS at J Selling & Co ... $1 50 All wool boys suits at $... will be on sale at J Selling & Co's.

ENTRANCE to A. B. Steinbach & Co's Store will be found on Morrison street side.

AN EMINENT, AGED JURIST

Ex-Justice William Strong Now on a Visit to This City

Ex-Justice William Strong late of the supreme court of the United States arrived by the overland from California Wednesday with his two daughters. He is in his 82d year and is a hale fine looking man for that age.

The party were out driving yesterday with Mrs Judge Deady. They will remain here for several days and will visit The Dalles and Astoria.

The judge will sit in the circuit court this morning with Judge Deady when the members of the bar will have an opportunity to pay their respects to him.

Judge Strong is a cousin of the late Judge William Strong of Oregon and is one of the distinguished jurists of the United States. He was on the bench of the supreme court of Pennsylvania for a number of years and then resigned after which he was appointed to the supreme court of the United States, where he served till he was 70 years of age with great distinction. His opinions on all questions arising out of the reconstruction measures are distinguished for clearness and ability and are landmarks in the judicial history of the United States. He has no doubt this is a Nation with a big "N."

DOWN BY THE BOUNDING BILLOWS

Picking a Crew—Nehalem Road—Salmon Run—Stubborn Jailers.

Astorian and Pioneer

J. W Hume is in the city picking up a crew of fishermen to go to the Coquille for fall fishing.

Work on the Nehalem road from Olney to Washington county will be commenced immediately.

The I. R. & N Co have begun work upon the new wharf at their terminus at Shoalwater bay.

A large amount of water pipe went down to Fort Canby Wednesday for use of the works at the fort.

A large number of fishermen will leave next week for the Sacramento river to engage in salmon fishing.

The Edinburg is still lying at Sand Island. The bar has been too rough the past few days to allow her to cross out.

The city tax roll this year foots up $2,009 835 at 8 mills tax, that yields $16 798. The roll is now in the hands of Captain Hustler for collection.

The salmon run the past few days has been on the increase. The average per boat Wednesday was fifteen. Some boats, however brought in as high as forty two salmon.

The rush for timber land in Tillamook county continues. This week's Headlight has 19 timber land notices. Of those filing twelve are Astorians as many more are Tillamookers, nearly all the rest are from Tacoma.

Major Blakeney and Captain White have secured a site for a life-saving station at Yaquina. They now go to San Francisco. From there they go on the Corwin to Coos bay and the Umpqua where they will select two more sites for life saving stations.

Willie Ankers, a waiter on the steamer Telephone, is one of the claimants to the $50,000 000 Blythe estate now in the courts of San Francisco. Ankers claims that Blythe, prior to his coming to this country, was called Savage, and that Blythe was an uncle to Ankers's mother.

It is reported that the terms of settlement of property rights on which Mrs. C K. Hume received her divorce from Joseph Hume were that she receive $18,000, the homestead and four acres of land, valued at $45,000, and $400 per month for the support of herself and family. In return she gives Joseph Hume a clear deed to all rights which she might have in his property.

It is reported that the sailors shipped from San Francisco for the bark Edinburgh, now at Sand Island, refuse to go to work for the reason that they were to be brought to Astoria and be supplied with clothing, which they claim they have not received. On the other hand it is positively stated that they were well supplied with clothes in San Francisco which were put aboard with them, and that they are all right, which is probably the case.

THE GLENNAN FISHERY

Ten Families—Forty Sloops—$15 000 of Improvements To Be Made at Once

Port Townsend Call

The members of the Glennan syndicate held a meeting last night to consider a proposal from a fishing company to purchase thirty acres of land in Glennan with a frontage on ... for a site to establish a fishing industry on an extensive scale.

The company offer the syndicate $10 an acre for thirty acres of land with frontage on ... bay for wharf purposes. If their offer was accepted they agreed to make $ ...000 worth of improvements at once. The company consists of ten families of five persons in each family. In addition they will employ at least fifty fishermen.

They have a complete fishing outfit that consists of forty sloops, their tackle and nets, seines etc.

After a careful consideration of the proposition the members of the syndicate concluded to accept the offer and all arrangements have been made necessary to the transfer of the site to the fishery company.

This is indeed good news for Port Townsend. It is the inception of an industry that will develop and advance to that magnitude and importance that within a few years Glennan will be the scene of a thriving stirring place of several thousand people.

The company will at once begin the construction of a wharf, dry and smoke houses and cottages for the families.

A steamer will shortly be placed in service between Glennan and the fishing grounds off Cape Flattery ... will be dispatched to the coast of Alaska where ... varieties of food fish ... in ... quantities.

The establishment of this industry on one of the inlets of Port Townsend ... known as ... bay is of vast importance ... the general public ... an increased population ... thousands of dollars ... the manufacturing ... Port Townsend ... development of an industry, the extent and the possibilities of which are practically without limit.

The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, JULY 26.

DR. JEKYLL AND MR HYDE

THE OREGONIAN, whenever it becomes involved in any discussion with the Catholic Sentinel, is obliged to endure the intellectual impact not only of Dr Jekyll, who is the editorial fulminator of the Sentinel, but of Mr Hyde, who as private citizen Munly, addresses a letter to THE OREGONIAN in prosecution of a discussion that he has provoked and continued in his capacity of the editorial Jekyll of the Sentinel. It is difficult to understand the propriety of the course of an editor with a paper at his back playing both the parts of Jekyll and Hyde in a newspaper discussion. The place for Mr Jekyll Hyde Munly to reply to THE OREGONIAN is in the columns of the Sentinel in which he begins his discussion and criticism. The circulation of the Sentinel is ample for the purposes of Mr Jekyll Hyde Munly, and we would respectfully suggest that as a true journalist he would do better to confine to the Sentinel his discussion of THE OREGONIAN's language and opinions. The place where he prints his attack is the place to print his defense or protest, or whatever it may be. It is little short of impertinence for a man to open with violence and vituperation on THE OREGONIAN from his newspaper battery and then expect THE OREGONIAN to consider not only all he may choose to utter in his paper as the editorial Jekyll but also all he may choose to say in THE OREGONIAN as private Mr Hyde Munly, who writes a letter to THE OREGONIAN in which he quotes the following from our issue of the 21st inst:

> The methods of misrepresentation of the facts of history and the persistent perversion of the plain meaning of its opponent's language practiced by the Catholic Sentinel brings the intelligent and candid reader to the conclusion that its editor is either a purblind polemic and honest bigot, or that he is a petty Jesuitical pettifogger.

Mr Munly wants a "bill of particulars." It would be a sufficient answer to refer him to the files of his own paper. The recent discussion of the history of the doctrine of the infallibility of the pope is alone sufficient to establish the truth of the charge that the Sentinel cannot help misrepresenting the facts of history, and its disingenuous attempt in a recent issue to pervert the plain meaning of THE OREGONIAN's language concerning the question of public vs parochial schools is proof of its blind bigotry and prejudice, or of its pettifogging habit. The Sentinel considers every discussion of this question of the public vs the parochial school by THE OREGONIAN as a red rag shaken in the face of the papal bull and its method of discussion is invariably a blunt denial of statements which are as authentic as the battle of Bunker Hill or Gettysburg. The history of the Reformation, its provocation, its far-reaching and beneficent consequences in enlarging the domain of popular liberty, the attitude of the Church of Rome in the past toward the advancement of science, religious toleration, spiritual and political freedom, is always treated in the same way—either by a brazen denial of historical facts or by a pettifogging perversion of the clear meaning of the language of the opposition. The school books that are compelled to recite the disgraceful past of the Catholic church, just as they are compelled to recite the disgraceful past performances of Protestant bigots are denounced as lying histories. To represent the Catholic church of to day as responsible for the corrupt and cruel policy of the middle ages that forced the Reformation would be unjust the same as it would be unjust to hold the New England Protestant responsible for the cruelty and bigotry of Elizabeth or the iconoclastic barbarism of the Cromwellians, but the facts of history must be recited fearlessly without favor to either the Protestant or Catholic church of the past.

It is true that constitutional liberty never had a chance to spread its wings in France or Italy, until the temporal power and influence of the pope were overwhelmed by revolution. It is true that science was smothered by the Catholic church at a time when its advancement was welcomed by every Protestant country in Europe. The progress of the world has been so rapid within the last one hundred years that science is no longer gagged and free speech flung into fetters and forced into exile as they once were in the days of Copernicus, Galileo, Bruno and Rabelais, but it is also true that science and free speech after the Reformation had an audience and immunity from persecution in England, Scandinavia, Holland and Protestant Germany that was denied them until the temporal consequence and influence of the pope were broken, and he became a political cipher, the shadow of a once great name. Look at science in Italy and France until political and social revolution broke the grip of the pope, the aristocracy and the priesthood on the neck of the people. The genius of France and Italy, so long as it limited its expression to art and pure literature was tolerated by the court, but the moment it turned its searching eye on science or political or social freedom and began to plead for the right of free inquiry, for the legal reform of everything that trampled under foot the primitive natural and equal rights of man, then genius went into exile with Voltaire and Rousseau. Science in Italy sprang into new and better life when Napoleon as first consul, conquered its petty tyrants and honored its scientists and scholars as they never had been honored before. Let any one who owns a cyclopedia mark the names of the men whose contributions have made our modern civilization what it is to day, and he will find that nine tenths of them were the children of Protestant Anglo Saxon, or Teutonic nations, or were fugitives from countries controlled by the priesthood in the days when they ruled the so called Catholic and Latin races.

SCENERY ISN'T ALL

When men of high natural intelligence and varied worldly experience visit Oregon and Washington like a congressional committee or a party of tourists that include able congressmen or men of wealth and business capacity, they usually see little of our state save those places that are attractive to the lovers of fine natural scenery. They are taken for a trip down the Columbia to Astoria, or up to the Dalles, they sail through the sound and go home with a very superficial view of the solid resources of Oregon and Washington in agricultural, timber and mineral wealth. Perhaps the local committees who receive such visitors are unable to guide their steps, but if they are a trip through the Willamette valley, through the "inland empire" through the timber districts and mining region of Washington would reveal the agricultural and other resources of Oregon and Washington far better than mere pleasure excursions which exhibit the beauty of the Columbia and the salmon "stock yards" at its mouth. The conversation held by intelligent and observant tourists with their neighbors on their return from our coast is the best sort of an advertisement of its advantages and it is desirable that these visitors should go home with something more than a superficial estimate of our solid resources and our pressing wants. A man may be highly amused and entertained during his trip to Oregon and yet go home with no very definite knowledge of the solid merits and advantages of our section that are attractive to emigrants from the East. It is a pity that such men should not go home thoroughly instructed, instead of being only as thoroughly amused and diverted as a half-grown boy is on the 4th of July, and about as well filled with solid information of the real wealth, vast resources and pressing wants of this country.

A LARGE FIRM FAILS.

Lewis Bros. & Co., Dealers in Dry Goods.

BRANCH HOUSES IN MANY CITIES

The Liabilities Are Estimated at About Four Million Dollars—It Is Thought the Assets Are Nearly as Great.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The announcement that the notes of the heavy dry goods firm of Lewis Bros & Co had gone to protest, was the all absorbing topic in mercantile circles to day. According to current report the liabilities of the firm amount to nearly $4 000 000.

A reporter who visited the firm's store to day found the manager and employes on hand and apparently as busy as bees.

"Has the firm made an assignment?" was asked of the man in command.

"Not yet," was the reply.

"Do you think the house will be tided over the difficulty?"

"Yes, but the members of the firm are not here and I cannot speak authoritatively."

The absence of the proprietors from the place during the forenoon gave rise to the suspicion that they were endeavoring to make arrangements to take up the protested notes. It is understood that if the firm could be given a little time they would be able to pay in full and continue business.

An assignment was filed by the firm in the county clerk's office this afternoon. Cornelius N Bliss is assignee.

The parties will make a statement in a few days.

Bliss the assignee, said that the firm's statement in the past sixty days showed a surplus of over $100 000, but that it was not available now. A large part of it was in accounts which they could not collect immediately. He thought the assets would make a fair showing. The liabilities were to banks and trust companies. There will be a meeting of the creditors in ten days he said.

A man familiar with the firm's affairs said to-day that nearly all of the banks in New England held the firm's paper, especially in the cities where they had mill accounts. Boston, Providence, Hartford, New Haven and New Bedford banks are reported to hold considerable paper. The New York banks mentioned are the Fourth National, the Ninth National, the Central National and the Central Trust Company. The Philadelphia banks are the heaviest holders.

The firm has been extended and overloaded. They suffered a severe loss in the death of Henry Lewis, the founder of the house, who was well known, particularly in Philadelphia.

It was learned from another source that the firm own their store property in Philadelphia and also their store building on Worth street, New York, which is on leased grounds, and which, it is said, was mortgaged a few months ago.

It is said that one of the causes of the failure was the Johnstown disaster. The late H Lewis had a large interest in the Cambria Iron Works there, which his estate held, and the loss by the flood depreciated the securities. The Johnstown Manufacturing Company and the Woodvale Woolen Mills consigned their products to Lewis Brothers' mill which was destroyed by the flood and the loss was $300 000. It was controlled by the Cambria Iron Company.

Walter H Lewis was a director of the New York Life Insurance Company.

The business of the firm has amounted to as high as $15,000 000 a year. Lately it is said to have fallen to $8 000 000 or $10 000 000 annually. They claimed that their capital was $1 500,000, and that they made money every year.

Since January there has been no doubt expressed about their financial standing, and in March last Bradstreet took away their capital rating and reduced their credit rating a grade.

April 20 the firm made the following statement to a large financial institution: Assets $5 472 000, consisting of ledger accounts $1 875 000, manufacturers accounts, $1 79 000, securities $811 000, real estate $770 000, bills receivable $723 000; liabilities $4 129 000, of which $3 682 000 was bills payable and $447 000 loans, leaving a net surplus of $1 343 000. This was not looked on as a favorable statement by the trade and the firm had hard work to make collections.

The firm was interested in the Conshohocken worsted mills which failed. They admitted in March last that they would lose $25 000 by President Bullock's insolvency.

For over twenty five years the firm of Lewis Bros & Co have been the leading house in the dry goods trade. It was founded in Philadelphia in 1857. The founder died in 1886 leaving a large estate, of which $258 000 was invested in capital in the firm besides $100 000 which was contained in the business.

IN OTHER CITIES

At Philadelphia It is Believed the Liabilities Will Amount to $4 000 000

PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—A surprise was occasioned in business circles this morning by the announcement that the firm of Lewis Bros & Co, wholesale dry goods dealers on Chestnut street above Second had made an assignment.

While the exact amount cannot as yet be ascertained, it is thought the liabilities will sum up to nearly $4,000 000. The firm is one of the largest in its line of business in the city and perhaps in the country. It has houses in many cities in the United States, notably in New York, Chicago, Baltimore and Boston.

The members of the firm residents of this city are George W Wharton, Joseph W Lewis and Henry Lewis Wharton, when seen this morning promptly authenticated the rumor that his firm had made an assignment. Cornelius W Bliss of New York of the firm of Bliss, Fabyan & Co, he stated was the assignee.

"I am unable," continued Wharton, "to place the amount of our liabilities. However I feel convinced that they will not be much in excess of the assets. Of course it is impossible to determine these things until an examination of the books shall have been made. We are now going over our books and will probably know more definitely to night how and where we stand. If we could have had only two or three days more I assure you we would have been able to tide over the difficulties, but the blow fell just at the worst time and our only course was to make an assignment. This we did. For some time past our business prospects have never been brighter, but you know you cannot market paper."

MILLS AND BANKS DEEPLY INVOLVED

PROVIDENCE, R I, July 25.—The mills and banks have been involved by the failure of Lewis Bros & Co to the extent of $600 000. The local banks have about $150 000 of their paper and the rest is among half a dozen mills. None of them have been seriously embarrassed.

THE FIRM'S ASSETS IN BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, Md, July 25.—Prominent dry goods men here estimate that Lewis Bros & Co have in Baltimore more than half a million of assets. They have no liabilities in Baltimore.

NEWS FROM VICTORIA.

Appropriation to Improve the Public Works—The Salmon Industry

VICTORIA, July 24.—By laws providing for borrowing $170 000 for improving the water works and the fire department and beautifying Beacon Hill Park, were passed to day by a large majority. As soon as arrangements can be made, half a million will be asked for to perfect the sewer system.

The salmon run on Fraser river has commenced in earnest and the canneries have all the fish they can handle. To day one cannery secured 5000 salmon. The canners are jubilant.

The sloop B and R of Seattle capsized at Cowichan Gap yesterday. The crew were saved. The sloop is adrift in the Gulf of Georgia.

THE TESTIMONY ALL IN.

The Parnell Commission Takes a Recess Until October 24.

LONDON, July 25.—The Parnell commission entered upon a long recess to day.

When court convened this morning Hardcastle, an accountant testified that the books of the land league, which had been produced before the commission occupied the whole period of the league's existence. He could not say that the £75 000, which was unaccounted for owing to the absence of the ladies' league books, had been misappropriated.

Soames, solicitor for the Times, in reply to a question by Sexton, said he could not tell whether £10 000 was the amount the Times paid the witnesses. The sum, however, is very large.

This concluded the taking of evidence and the court adjourned till October 24.

Justice Hannen ordered Thomas Condon and John O'Conner, members of the commons who while serving sentences in Ireland for offenses under the crimes act were brought to London to testify before the Parnell commission, to complete the remainder of their terms in the London prison.

AN INEXHAUSTIBLE MINE.

Collection of Samples of Baker County Products for the Exhibit Car

BAKER CITY, July 23, 1889.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Your correspondent in company with B S Pague of the United States Signal Service of Portland, Or, co operating with the Board of Immigration started from Baker City on the afternoon of the 17th instant in quest of samples of Baker county products which are to be placed in the exhibit car which leaves Portland for the East about the 10th of August. Although this season has been a very dry one the samples collected by Mr Pague will compare favorably with the average for Eastern Oregon. Rye, wheat, barley, red top, oats, clover, alfalfa and timothy, raised on land subject to irrigation, are exceedingly fine. Vegetables were found not to be sufficiently matured for preservation, and the samples taken of corn, potatoes and beets were principally valuable from the fact that they were taken from ground worth from $75 000 to $100,000 per acre in placer gold, and were from the gardens of D N Nelson and Colonel Blaisdel.

Being ushered into the office of Colonel Blaisdel we were shown a sample of the product of the most wonderful placer mine in the world familiarly known as the "Baisdel" mine. A mammoth safe, weighing some five tons, was approached by the Colonel, and after manipulating four combinations and using half a dozen keys, the great iron door was swung back on its hinges and a quart of nuggets were scooped up from one of the compartments as if they were coarse stones and laid before us—nuggets from the size of a pinhead to that of a butter dish, of all conceivable shapes and dimensions, some round, some flat and some triangular—all gold—pure shining yellow gold. Is there any wonder that we lingered long and gazed upon that precious quart of nuggets with covetous eyes? Gold is the stuff that moves the world and when the Colonel blandly remarked that there were more nuggets in his safe than we could carry to Baker City on our backs we could but think that "nature moves in a mysterious way" and plants her nuggets deep in clay. We suggested to the Colonel that the present custodian's keeping was worth his life if it were known that such a vast amount of wealth was kept in such an isolated place, but when he displayed an arsenal sufficient to defend a modern fort and informed us that a guard was kept around it night and day, we concluded that we would pursue the even tenor of our way and not attempt a raid upon the golden treasures of the Colonel's safe.

One hundred pounds of gold (what do you think of it?) moulded into bricks was displayed at the First National bank of Baker City on Thursday last, a part of the clean up, not of nuggets but of the fine placer gold which is amalgamated by the use of quicksilver, all from Colonel Blaisdel's mine, the partial result of a very dry season's work, no bed rock yet, although at a depth of eighty feet.

This wonderful placer belt is situated eight miles west of Baker City and is four miles long by one half a mile wide. By careful prospecting it is estimated that it can be worked to a depth of eighty feet (the pay runs much deeper, but there is not sufficient dump to warrant deeper working) and will yield an average of 60 cents to the cubic yard. If these figures are correct there is to day buried in this vast deposit, that can be and will be piped out the enormous sum of $100 000 000 of gold. Where has this gold come from? The nuggets are many of them impregnated with quartz, and there is no doubt whatever but this vast wash is the accumulation of decomposed quartz and gravel which has washed from the adjacent mountains and been deposited on the foot hills below.

The Elkhorn group of quartz mines is situated not far from this deposit and the Tip Top and other quartz ledges of great promise are just above these diggings.

Truly this is a wonderful country for gold and we are only in our infancy as yet, so far as development goes.

ABOUT FEMALE BARTENDERS.

PORTLAND, July 25.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

Is it the law of Oregon that a saloonkeeper to have a female in his place of business to tend the bar or to have his wife or relative take the place of a bartender?

M. R.

[A city ordinance prohibits the employment of waiter girls in saloons, but it is not known that there is any state law prohibiting a saloonkeeper's wife from taking his place at the bar. A lawyer is the proper person to apply to for such information.]

Suit Against a Helena Bank

CHICAGO, July 25.—Individual members of the firms of Australia Wise & Co, John Wamsold & Co, Ewenor & Burleigh and Henry G Foreman as trustees for the firm, began a trespass suit for $15 000 to day against the First National bank of Helena, Montana.

J E Sandlsman & Co, merchants of Helena gave a bill of sale to the plaintiffs of their stock to secure indebtedness due them. The bank afterward attached the stock for a debt due by Landsman & Co and sold it. Plaintiffs now sue for the value of the account of the Montana bank at the First National bank of Chicago which was garnisheed.

Jim Garfield's Engagement Announced

CHICAGO, July 25.—It would seem that the sons of national statesmen have a corner on the fairest of Chicago's daughters. It is but a few days ago that the prospective marriage of a wealthy beauty, Miss Annita McCormick, and Emmons Blaine, the second son of the Maine statesman was published, and now it is authoritatively announced that Miss Helen Newell, daughter of General Manager John C Newell of the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road, is engaged to marry James R Garfield, second son of the late President Garfield.

A "Green Goods" Shop Raided

NEW YORK, July 25.—The police yesterday raided the "green goods" shop of W C Burns who was swindling confiding countrymen under the name of Ellis. The place was fitted up with the most elaborate deceptive paraphernalia in the way of desks with sliding panels, etc.

DEMANDS OF ROYALTY.

A Spirited Debate on the Grants in the Commons.

THE EXPENSES OF HER MAJESTY

Labouchere Advocates Retrenchment for the Relief of the Taxpayers—Gladstone and Morley Support the Government

LONDON, July 25.—The report of the parliamentary committee on royal grants was called up in the commons this afternoon.

Smith, the government leader, declined to consider the question as to the amount of the queen's savings and moved the adoption of the committee's report. The government could not believe, he said, that any important section of the people grudged royalty the moderate provision necessary to maintain its dignity. If they examined the systems of other civilized countries they would find the English system to be the most economical, giving invaluable stability while obtaining the respect of all English speaking people.

Labouchere moved the adoption of his substitute declaring the sums given the royal family already to be ample, and that if further supplies were needed they ought to be provided through retrenchment in the royal household. He not only [illegible] upon the taxpayers. He ridiculed Smith's assertion of economy, calling attention to the fact that while the president of the United States received $50,000 annually the queen and her family received $4 000 000. The [illegible] admitted the large savings of the queen from the civil list. Doubtless the savings would be invested. It was impossible for the country to submit to the burden of an indefinite number of grandchildren. He did not complain of Mr Gladstone's supporting the grants. He understood Gladstone's position.

Labouchere proceeded to explain how the total of the queen's household would provide the sum necessary to provide for the grandchildren. If the useless offices of [illegible] number in Lord Steward, master of the horse, master of the buckhounds, eight lords in waiting, eight grooms in waiting, four equerries and a number of others were abolished, an ample sum would be left for the purpose mentioned. There were good men who would be glad to do the work the sinecurists did for nothing—Mr Chamberlain, for instance. [Laughter.]

Samuel Storey, radical, seconded the amendment.

Gladstone said he was averse to all measures of economy that impaired the dignity and splendor of the crown, and, therefore, he supported the government.

Morley attributed the fever that had been excited by the question of the royal grants to the government's want of frankness. Their original proposals were stupefying and they had withdrawn from an impossible and impracticable position in agreeing to the grant of £36 000, in order to prevent mischievous friction between parliament and the crown. The extravagant grants of former reigns furnished no excuse for a repetition of them now. He could not support Labouchere because that gentleman imputed that the message from the queen ought never to have been presented, and he (Morley) desired to uphold the good forms and traditions of parliament, but on Monday he would move an amendment raising the whole question in the broadest possible form.

Mr Bradlaugh adjourned the debate.

THE BLYTHE WILL CONTEST.

Introduction of a Number of Letters Written by the Millionaire.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The examination of Mrs Perry, Florence Blythe's grandmother was resumed at the trial of the Blythe case to day. A number of letters which passed between Blythe and the Perrys, chiefly in reference to Florence's welfare, were identified.

Among the letters read to day was one in which Blythe replied to inquiries of Mrs Perry as to whether he objected to having Florence baptized and christened. Mrs Perry, for her husband wrote that the child's mother had opposed christening, saying Blythe objected to it. The Perrys also asked if Blythe wished the child christened Florence Perry or Florence Blythe. In his letter Blythe said:

"After full deliberation, I think it best to have Flora brought up in the Episcopal Church, the church of England. You will therefore have my daughter christened at once and have her named after her father Florence Blythe."

Mrs Perry stated that, in compliance with Blythe's request, Florence was baptized and christened at Blackpool, Lancaster county, England, July 1, 1881, by Vicar Jeffreys. The certificate of baptism was admitted in evidence, wherein the names of the parents are given as Thomas Henry and Julia Blythe. In a blank left for the occupation or quality of the father is written the word "gentleman." The residence of the parents is given as Blackpool, which is explained by Mrs Perry as neither Blythe nor Julia Perry ever resided there.

Further letters from Blythe to Florence [illegible] to her [illegible] most of the afternoon. In one letter she wrote [illegible] to scatter faith [illegible] of his.

Mrs Perry, in reply to the counsel's question, said that Florence sent the sou[illegible] and that [illegible] was built in them. In one of his letters dated February 10, 1881 Blythe wrote that he would be 60 years of age on the 10th of the next July. According to this claim, the whose [illegible] that Blythe's real name was James Savage, he must have been at his death 59 years old.

After the adjournment to day one of the claimants [illegible] that the child [illegible] had her case [illegible] but that he would [illegible] his own case. He said that [illegible] Julia Coffey [illegible] part of the estate [illegible] Florence in California the judge might hold that Blythe adopted the little girl under the laws of California, and that's [illegible] to be entitled to the bulk of the property in California but the Mexico lands and property in Arizona and Nevada wouldn't be included in her inheritance.

PROHIBITION IN ENGLAND.

An Interview With a Prominent Leader of the Movement

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Richard Lloyd of Devonshire, England, arrived in this city last night from New York. Mr Lloyd is an Englishman, vice-president of the United Kingdom alliance and is on his way to Australia.

"I am a firm believer in local option as the means to secure prohibition of the liquor traffic. The prohibition movement in England is not strictly advancing, but we are making progress.

"In regard to the purchases of American breweries with English capital," he said, "your breweries and distilleries are wise in selling out. The liquor traffic will never again be so prosperous as in the past. The American breweries are being bought with tory capital. They see that the prohibition is coming in England, but it will take longer in America. Hence their investments on this side of the Atlantic."

COLUMBIA RIVER SALMON

This Season's Pack Estimated at 283,400 Cases.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The following is from the advance sheets of the Johnson Locke Mercantile Company's salmon circular, which is published here under date of July 6. The circular says: "We give you herewith an estimate of the salmon pack on the Columbia river for the season of 1889. This has been made by the most competent authority on the Columbia river, David Morgan, Jr. The pack for the season is estimated at 288 400 cases, as against 370 000 cases last year, or a shortage of 84 000 cases. But in the 288 400 cases given by Mr Morgan as the 1889 pack he estimates that at least 10 000 cases are steelheads. This reduces the legitimate Columbia river spring pack to 278 400 cases."

The itemized estimate of the pack of each cannery is then given.

SAN FRANCISCO'S WEALTH

A Favorable Showing Made by the Assessor's Annual Report

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—The annual report of the assessor submitted to day shows the value of the personal property of this city to be $[illegible] 000,000, an increase over last year of over $1 000 000. Value of real estate, $[illegible] 000 000, an increase over last year of $1 000 000.

STORMS IN MINNESOTA.

Wind, Hail and Lighting Cause Much Damage to the Farmers

ST PAUL, July 25.—A Pioneer Press Morristown, Minn, special says: A severe hail and electric storm in this vicinity this afternoon did great damage. Several buildings were demolished. At Anoka the most terrific thunder and rain storm known for years was experienced. Much damage is reported from the surrounding country.

A TORNADO ELSEWHERE

MINNEAPOLIS, July 25.—A Tribune special from New Ulm, Minn, says: A tornado 100 feet wide passed eight miles west of here this afternoon. Four barns and five dwellings were destroyed. Eight cattle and horses were killed in the path of the storm. Nobody was hurt. Several lives are lost.

NORTHERN PACIFIC FINANCES

Talk of Throwing More Bonds Upon the German Market

NEW YORK, July 25.—Dow Jones & Co's circular states that a new Pacific million Dillon's Northern Pacific trust is announced will be [illegible] in Berlin provided the stockholders authorize it. A sum of ten million dollars of the above amount may be used to take up the 6 per cent bonds for which the Northern Pacific is responsible.

Being interested in this point parties acting with Villard in the Berlin banking interests in the Northern Pacific say that the report that $1 000 000 of collateral has been placed for the company in Berlin is nonsense. As to what disposition may be made of the proceeds of the loan when authorized it would, they say, be premature to say anything now, although a part may ultimately be used to retire the 6 per cent bonds.

FLOODS IN KANSAS.

The Water in the Fall River Bottoms Rising Two Inches an Hour.

FREDONIA, Kan, July 25.—The water in the flooded Fall river bottoms here is rising two inches an hour. The river in places is seven miles wide and the water twenty feet deep. A heavy iron wagon bridge after standing for fifteen years went down last night, leaving only two railroad bridges standing in the neighborhood. The flood is within a quarter of a mile of the city.

A relief party was organized to day, as families slow to move are being surrounded and rescued as fast as possible. No deaths are reported although a few persons are missing.

There has been no mail here for two days and the telegraph wires are operated with difficulty. The weather indicates more rain.

MARY ANDERSON'S HEALTH.

She Is Reported To Be Suffering From a Mild Form of Paresis.

NEW YORK, July 25.—A weekly theatrical journal contains a long article about Mary Anderson, the well known actress, in which the writer says he is credibly informed that she is suffering from a mild form of paresis, and is at present in a sanitarium on the other side of the water. No verification or denial of the report could be obtained to night, but her friends in this city look upon it as very improbable.

THE CRONIN CASE.

Coughlin, P. O. Sullivan, Biggs, Kunze and Woodruff Arraigned.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Dan Coughlin, P O Sullivan, J F Beggs, John Kunze and Frank Woodruff were arraigned before Judge Horton this afternoon. In answer to the question all of the prisoners with the exception of Coughlin said that they were ready for trial. Coughlin said that he wished to see his attorney before answering. The matter was continued until to morrow morning, when the prisoners' attorneys will be in court.

A New Comet Discovered

BOSTON, July 25.—A cable message received to day from the European Union of Astronomers announces the discovery of a bright comet in the southern heavens by Professor Davidson, of Queensland, on July 21. It has a motion northwards of about 6 degrees a day. This cannot be the comet which was reported yesterday as being Barnard's comet as seen from Sydney, N S W. The comet discovered by Professor Brooks of Geneva, New York has been observed at the Lick and Cambridge observatories. The rough orbit computed by Professor Chandler indicates that it is probably a comet of short period passing its perihelion in August. It will not become at all bright.

Opium Fiends Fined

CHICAGO, July 25.—The police raided an alleged joint last night. The interior was fitted up with costly divans with silk hangings, etc., and a concealed trap door led to an underground apartment in which four Chinamen and three whites were found smoking opium. They were taken out. They were fined $5 each this morning.

A Son of an U. S. Consul Arrested

KINGSTON, Ont, July 25.—The son of Marshall H Twitchell, U S consul here, was arrested to-day on the charge of being the masked burglar who entered the residence of Mrs Mart a last night. He is a mere boy and up to the present time has borne a good character. He is said to be insane.

REASONS FOR THEIR SUCCESS

Years of unvarying success in the treatment of all diseases and deformities that afflict humanity have won for the Drs Darrin a far famed reputation. Their system of electro magnetic treatment is now recognized by well informed people as the greatest in the world and their success in curing diseases being nowhere equaled. This professional firm is composed of two eminent physicians, each one of whom has attained the highest degree of proficiency in his own specialties, being eminently qualified by special education and extensive experience for the particular department of practice to which he makes a specialty. The only way a doctor can become thoroughly successful is to devote himself to some special branch of his profession. Under the regular code of ethics this plan is almost impracticable and doctors continue to make fatal blunders by endeavoring to practice more than they have ever learned. The Drs Darrin have successfully solved the great problem and overcome all these difficulties in their extensive business by their method of treatment. In addition to a thorough course in some of the best medical colleges in the country each one of the physicians has been trained in his own particular line by practical experience under the direction of skillful specialists. Their experience is not limited to a few isolated conditions, as is so often the case with other doctors. They meet with and treat every imaginable complication of disease and the experience thus gained together with the constant study of their respective specialties constitutes the natural ground work of their unparalleled success.

Drs Darrin's Place of Business

Dr Darrin can be consulted free at 23½ Fifth street, corner of Main, Portland. Office hours from 10 to 4 o'clock daily, evenings 7 to 8, Sundays 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, loss of manhood, blood taints, syphilis, gleet, gonorrhœa, stricture, spermatorrhœa, seminal weakness or loss of desire of sexual power in man or woman, catarrh and deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed and never published in the papers. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit to the doctor's office. Inquiries answered and circulars sent free.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

NEW YORK, July 25.—The stock market was ... at the opening this morning; but soon recovered and advanced steadily throughout the ... of the day, scoring material gains ... the close. The reports of the great dry goods failure, however, created a bearish feeling among the trading element here, and the first prices were from ⅛ to ¾ per cent. below last night's closing figures, and by vigorous hammering at the outset further losses were established. SAN FRANCISCO MARKETS.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.—Produce receipts during the past twenty-four hours, included: wheat, [illegible] ctls, mostly aboard ship; flour, 7900 qr sks; potatoes, 4700 sks; barley, 6400 ctls.

Freights and charters—There were but few spot grain charters written during the past week on account of high asking rates. Exporters are fairly well supplied with tonnage to arrive at figures below spot values, and consequently prefer to await the arrival of their chartered vessels to taking up tonnage at enhanced figures. The Br Ship Cypromene, iron, 1834 tons, was taken off spot for United Kingdom, Havre or Antwerp, at 38s 9d. Ship Alex Gibson, wood, 2121 tons, was also fixed on spot for Liverpool at 31s 3d. Arrivals in under prior engagement during the week were: Br ship Dunnerdale, iron, 1066 tons, at 33s 6d. Br bk Edinburgh, iron, 1406 tons, at 36s 3d. Br bk Amazon, iron, 1998 tons, at 37s 6d. Br ship Hanauwar wood, 1619 tons, at 32s 6d, all for United Kingdom, Havre or Antwerp. The ship Eureka, wood, 1896 tons, has been chartered for spot wheat for Rio Janeiro at 32s 6d.

Miscellaneous charters were quite active, and the demand for both lumber and coal vessels continues good. Latest engagements are as follows: Ship Prussia, lumber, from Puget sound to Sydney; Chili bk Antoinette, lumber, Burrard inlet to Valparaiso; schr Puritan, lumber, Puget sound to Melbourne; bark Carrollton, coal from Nanaimo to San Francisco.

Wheat—The local market has shaped its course steadily in sellers' favor, and the volume of business done during the past week was quite large. Foreign advices continue to show a hardening tendency and prices are 3d to 6d per quarter dearer than sales made at this time last week. The strength of European markets stimulated local speculation and brought out considerable competition, causing prices to advance from $1 27½@1 32½ to $1 30¾@1 37½. At the close the demand continues active and undertone strong. Futures—Trading on 'change shows a gain in volume of business done, as well as in values. Buyer the year continues to be the favorite option and shows an advance of 2@3c per cental. Buyer season gained 1½@2¼c.

To-day forenoon sales were 600 tons, buyer year, at $1 41¾, 200 tons at $1 42¼, 300 tons at $1 42⅝. Buyer season, at $1 49½; seller year, new, $1 36½.

Afternoon session: Wheat—Firmer; buyer year opened $1 42½, closed $1 40⅛; buyer season closed $1 49½; seller year, new $1 36.

Barley—The firmness shown by holders has brought about less active trading, as buyers are not disposed to meet the extreme views of sellers. Choice feed generally held at 72½c, which is fully 2½c above buyers ideas, and few sales can be effected above 70c for choice feed. No. 1 feed, 67½c; common, 62½@65c; brewing, 85@97½c.

Options—Fairly active; buyer season, 92¾c; buyer year, 86¼c.

Oats—The market has generally ruled favorable to the selling interest until within the past few days, when buyers made a pause and commenced to ask for concessions. Holders ideas are firm, however, and prices about steady. Quote choice feed, $1 15; No. 2 feed, $1 10; lower grades, $1@1 05; milling, $1 17½@1 22½.

Potatoes—Fair demand all round. Choice burbanks firmly held at 80c@$1 37½; garnet chile and peerless, 60@65c.

Millstuffs—Good inquiry and prices gradually hardening. Oregon bran, $14 50; middlings, [illegible].

Hops—Irregular; slow of sale. Calcuttas quotable at [illegible].

Wool—Movement fairly active and prices firm. Oregon, valley at 20@25c; Eastern, 14½@22½c.

Butter and Eggs—Steady.

SAN FRANCISCO MARKET REVIEW.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 24.—Wheat is now up to $1 35¼ as the top price for No. 1 shipping, and is in quick demand. Several operators and exporters who needed wheat badly went into the country after it, and bid so briskly that the views of the farmers became inflated. In fact, several shippers have withdrawn from the market, fearing this movement in consequence. It is a good thing for the farmers, however. Briefly, wheat is very strong, and the general advance at Liverpool gives this market a powerful stimulus.

Oats are steadily held, but no higher.

A general advance in cereals has caused a rise in their products, and flour, bran, middlings, ground barley, and oat, corn and rye meals are all higher. The advance in flour is 25 cents per barrel.

Calcutta grain bags have declined to 7½c.

The shipments of California produce to the East have been falling off for the last three years, owing, doubtless, to the higher freight rates. When the railroad tariff was low, during the rate war of 1886, the shipments were immense.

Beans, potatoes and onions are all more or less [illegible] prices which do not vary much from day to day.

The dealers report wool easy and quiet, without being positively dull. Wool is by no means as active and buoyant as three or four weeks ago, however.

Choice hay is steady, but the lower grades are weak.

Cheese is steadily held at an advance.

California eggs run along about as they did last week, but choice Eastern has advanced.

Butter is between an advance and a decline, and it will not take much to effect either one. Every dealer has his own market and is firm or weak, as he is scantily or liberally stocked. At the same time fancy butter is growing scarcer, as is usual at this time of the year, and, were it not for the dread of heavy imports of Eastern butter, common among the dealers, the market would probably respond by an advance.

The meat market shows no change.

Canned fruits show more tone, there being an improved demand, principally for future delivery.

Canned salmon is in the usual condition at this time of year. All sorts of reports and stories are being circulated about the size of the pack, and everybody connected with the trade is being more or less confused in consequence.

CHICAGO MARKETS.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Wheat receipts past twenty-four hours at the principal receiving points were [illegible] bushels, and shipments [illegible] bushels.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CHICAGO, July 25.—Cattle—Receipts, 11,000; steady; beeves, $4 10@4 45; steers, $3 30@4 20; stockers and feeders, $1 90@2 90; Texas cattle, $1 55@3 15; natives and half-breeds, $3 35@3 55.

Hogs—Receipts, 15,000, slow; 5@10c lower; mixed, $4 30@4 55; heavy, $4 20@4 50; light, $4 35@4 60.

Sheep—Receipts, 6000; steady; natives, $3 50@4 85; Western, $3 65@4 20; Texans, $3@4 20.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Wheat opened rather easier; 87½c July, 86¼c August, 86⅛c September, 89⅛c December. Noon—86⅝c August, 86c September, 88⅞c December. Closed—87¾c July, 86½c August and September, 87⅛c October, 88⅞ December.

Grain freights steady. From New York to Liverpool, by steam, 3½d per bushel.

MISCELLANEOUS.

NEW YORK, July 25.—Hops—Quiet, weak.

Coffee—Options opened barely steady at 25@26 points down, and closed quiet at 10@15 points down; sales, 92,000 bags; August, $14 85; September, $14 15@14 25; October, $14 15@14 20; spot Rio, dull, nominal; fair cargoes, 17½c.

Copper—Neglected.

Lead—Quiet, heavy; domestic, $3 87½.

Tin—Dull, easier; Straits, $19 70.

Bar silver, 92⅝c.

Petroleum opened firm at $101⅝c, closing steady at $101¾c.

THE HUNT SUBSIDY IN GRAND RONDE.

UNION, Or., July 22.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

The residents of that portion of the Grand Ronde valley in Eastern Oregon through which it has been proposed to extend the Hunt railway system, have succeeded in raising the required subsidy, and it is probable that the road will be built. The amount of money demanded by Mr. Hunt to insure the extension of his road from Walla Walla to Union was $130,000, all of which, save a guarantee of $20,000 by Tacoma business men, has been raised by the people of Grand Ronde valley who are presumably to be benefited by the presence of a competing line of railway.

It would appear that this is a large sum of money to be given to secure the extension of the Hunt road to Union and must have required persistent effort on the part of those having the matter in charge to accomplish their purpose. Now that it is done it remains to be seen if Mr. Hunt will carry out his part of the programme and build the road.

At the present time the Grand Ronde valley is poorly supplied with railroad facilities. The O. R. & N. Co., it is true, skirts the southern end of the valley, but the great portion of this magnificent tract of land is without any rail facilities for the transportation of a wealth of products that are grown there each year. Of the 300,000 acres of land contained in the Grand Ronde valley nearly one-half is now devoted to the raising of grain and the annual shipments after meeting home demands, makes no small item in the business of railroad transportation.

That the Hunt road will secure a large proportion of this transportation is also certain, as a clause in each contract, signed by the subscribers to the subsidy, stipulates that the same can be paid in wheat to be accepted by the company at a rate not less than 50 cents a bushel.

The entire subsidy raised comes from the people of Indian Valley, Elgin, Summerville Sandridge, Cove Park and Union, with a few small subscriptions from various non-resident parties owning lands or having other interests in the vicinity of the proposed line of road.

The town of La Grande, being on the line of the O. R. & N. road and enjoying railroad facilities of its own, has refused to extend any aid to the Hunt road, recognizing in its advent a deathblow to its pretensions of becoming the county seat, for which honor it is now making a great effort.

Popularity Founded on Merits.

Last summer during the epidemic of bloody flux in Southern Illinois, Messrs. Walter Bros., of Waltersburg, Pope county, sold three hundred and eighty (380) bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy, and certify that to the best of their knowledge it did not fail in a single case. In many instances one bottle cured several cases. There were many deaths from the disease, five in one day, mostly persons treated by physicians. Over fifty persons in Pope county have certified to these facts, and that many lives were saved by this remedy. For sale by L. BLUMAUER & CO.

NOTES OF THE NORTHWEST.

OREGON.

Steps have recently been taken toward the establishment of an educational academy for Pendleton.

G. B. Tardiff, of Pendleton, has secured the contract for erecting the new courthouse at Colfax, W. T. He says that the building will cost $100,000.

A number of new settlers have arrived in Douglas county. They are of the better class and have along with them fine cattle, fowls and a good supply of farming implements.

Three immigrants, who arrived in Pendleton and camped below town, carelessly left their teams unguarded. Tramps rifled the wagons of more than $500. Two men were arrested and charged with the robbery, but were discharged for lack of sufficient evidence.

The assessment roll of the city of Pendleton shows the O. R. & N. Company to be the largest taxpayer, their valuation being $42,440. The largest individual taxpayer is W. F. Matlock, assessed for $38,745. Walla Walla capital is represented among the heavy taxpayers as follows: Levi Ankeny, $38,000; William C. Bardsley and wife, $6,500; Dusenbery & Co., $20,000; Louga & Chadsey, $7,050; A. H. Reynolds, $20,000; and S. Schwabacher, $10,900.

Thomas Monteith, who died on Sunday at Albany, was of Scottish ancestry, and was born at Mayfield, Fulton county, N. Y., on March 23, 1824, being 65 years old at the time of his death. In company with his brother, Walter Monteith, and Samuel Althouse, both now deceased, he came to Linn county in 1847. In the spring of 1848 they purchased of Hiram Smead the townsite of Albany, paying him for his "squatter's right" $400, and laid the same off in town lots, and in 1849 commenced the erection of the first frame house ever built in Albany, which still stands at the corner of Second and Washington streets, and is often pointed out to strangers as a relic of the city's early history.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

The newspapers of Seattle are agitating the question of a public park.

The Oregon Improvement Company is prospecting for new coal lands near Summit, in section 34.

The Grupe Bros.' mill, twelve miles above Dayton, has been destroyed by fire, together with 1,500,000 feet of lumber.

Burglars broke into the residence of Mr. A. N. Brown at Waitsburg and secured in cash and other plunder over $1000.

Contracts for grading twenty-five miles of the Tacoma, Olympia & Chehalis Valley railroad have been given and work is being pushed vigorously, seven miles being already graded.

Five hundred acres of T. P. Page's wheat fields near Athena were destroyed by fire, having caught from a passing engine. The wheat was reported to average forty bushels an acre, which will make Mr. Page's loss upwards of 20,000 bushels. It is not thought that the grain was insured.

The Colfax Electric Light & Power Company made investments last week aggregating about $8000, purchasing a 45-arc-light plant; also a new steam plant, which will be operated in a brick building to be erected by the company a short distance from the mill. The new plant is expected to be in operation by October 1.

IDAHO TERRITORY.

The Boise Statesman says: Samuel Jones, brother of Senator John P., arrived at Boise City a few days ago and went over to Owyhee county to look after mining property purchased a short time ago by the senator.

The Idaho World says: John M. Hurst and George F. Cook went to the Middle Fork of Payette on a prospecting trip. They discovered a silver-bearing ledge betweed Deadwood basin and Long valley, northwest of the former place. The ore assays from $600 to $1800 per ton, and they have a two-foot vein.

The Silver King mine, of Boise county, continues improving with depth and the ore coming out is estimated to be worth from $150 to $200 per ton. The ore is taken from the Banner mine, and twenty tons of ore yielded $10,300, an average of $515 per ton. In a little less than one month over $90,000 has been produced.

W. H. Atkinson had a lot of ore from the Antarctic mine, on East Fork, sampled at the Ketchum Sampling Works, which yielded at the rate of 900 ounces silver per ton. Another shipment of 10,000 pounds of ore from the Star of Hope was also received at the sampler. Matt Womack brought in 10,000 pounds of ore from the Eureka mine, at Seafoam, which sampled 108 ounces silver and $5 gold per ton.

COMING EVERDING'S WAY.

Mr. McGinn Ordered to Commence "Quo Warranto" Proceedings.

The District Attorney Will Appeal to the Supreme Court—H. H. Feldbusch's Case—John Quinlan Sent to Jail.

The case of Richard Everding, police commissioner-elect, against District Attorney Henry E. McGinn, to compel the latter to begin quo warranto proceedings against Joseph Simon, whose seat in the board of police commissioners is earnestly sought after by the plaintiff, came up before Judge Shattuck yesterday morning. Hon George H. Williams and ex-Judge E. B. Watson, represented the plaintiff, while Alfred Sears, jr., appeared for the respondent.

When the case was called, counsel for Mr McGinn filed an answer to the complaint of the petitioner, which alleged that Mr Simon retains his seat in the board of police commissioners without legal authority, in which he admitted that he is district attorney of Multnomah county but denied that he had ever refused to bring an action against Mr Simon to test his right to hold the office of police commissioner or Mr Everding's right thereto. He also proceeded to say that he had made a proposition to Mr Everding's counsel to commence and prosecute to a final determination in the supreme court, an information in the nature of a quo warranto for the object of deciding who had the legal right to the office. He would do this only on condition that Mr Everding would agree to a pro forma judgment in the circuit court in favor of Mr Simon.

He also said in his answer that before he made the above proposition, that is, when he was first applied to to commence quo warranto proceedings against Mr Simons, he examined into the rights of the latter and of Mr Everding to hold the office, and from the examination he became convinced that the petitioner had neither claim nor title to the office he demanded possession of. On the other hand, he was of the opinion that Mr Simon's term had not expired and would not until the legislature of the state had taken some action in the matter. Notwithstanding this conclusion, he was willing to prosecute Mr Simon under the conditions above named. In conclusion, he stated that he did not think that the exercise of his discretion in matters of this kind could not be controlled by the circuit court, and therefore asked that the case be dismissed.

COUNSEL PRESENT THEIR CASES.

After reading the answer of Mr McGinn, which was quite lengthy, to the court, ex-Judge Watson opened the argument of the petitioner.

The main point in counsel's argument was the assertion that Mr. McGinn had no right to force the petitioner into stipulations set forth in his answer, and that if he believed that Mr Everding had any claim to the office of police commissioner he should have signed the quo warranto petition. The district attorney's discretion was not an arbitrary one, if it was he could if he chose, keep all office holders elect from taking their seats. He claimed that the petitioner had a right to insist on the respondent signing the quo warranto. It was in the court's power to grant the petition, which he hoped he would do. It being noon, and Mr Watson having spoken about an hour the court adjourned for lunch.

At 1 30 o'clock Mr Sears took up the argument on behalf of the respondent. He confined himself mostly to the statements set forth in Mr McGinn's answer, which he contended were a sufficient defense of his cause. He also cited several authorities as counsel for the petitioner had done, bearing upon cases of a similar nature. He held that the district attorney was ready to bring an action against Mr Simon and prosecute it to an end, but he was not willing to allow counsel for the petitioner to control the whole proceedings. He further contended that there was no merit in the petition, because the court had no authority to mandamus the district attorney.

THE COURT THOUGHT DIFFERENTLY,

However, as after briefly stating his conclusions he granted the petition of Mr Everding.

Mr McGinn, on being seen by a reporter, stated that he would not let the case rest as it is, but will carry it to the supreme court as soon Judge Shattuck's order is entered, which will be in August.

THEY WERE FINED

In the United States district court yesterday William Morgan and F T Anderson of Albina, charged with furnishing liquor to Indians, each entered a plea of guilty and they were fined $5. They claimed that they knew that the Indians were working on some vessel, and supposed they were Japanese sailors.

August Peterson, who was arraigned on a similar charge, entered a plea of not guilty. His bail was increased to $250 which he furnished. After the court was adjourned he changed his mind and wished to withdraw his plea and plead guilty but it was too late.

"PEACE HOVERS O'ER THEM

H H Feldbusch through the intercession of his wife and his attorney James Gleason was allowed to plead guilty to a charge of simple assault upon his wife and the court, for the same reason imposed the lowest fine $5. The charge of threatening to kill was dismissed upon the motion of the district attorney. Mrs Feldbusch has made up with her husband, and very considerately has concluded to give him another chance. She said that she only took the step at the suggestion of a friend for self protection as she was afraid of him at the time.

POLICE COURT

The following cases constituted Judge Tanner's legal grist in the city police court yesterday. Henry Meyer charged with obstructing the streets, was fined $5. Martin Carlson Walder Stroud and Henry Wilson, drunk fined $2, $5 and $10, respectively. Lee Sing and Ah York, disorderly conduct, fined $10 each. Ah Ming and Ah Lowe, two Chinese vegetable venders were fined $5 each for depositing garbage on the streets.

JOHN QUINLAN BOUND OVER.

John Quinlan was arraigned in Justice Phelan's court yesterday afternoon charged with threatening to kill Captain William Whiteford. The defendant waived examination and was bound over in the sum of $250 and not being able to furnish security he went to jail by default.

DEATH OF ANDREW WELCH

A Prominent San Franciscan Expires in This City Yesterday Morning.

Andrew Welch a well known and prominent San Franciscan, largely interested in the sugar refinery running in opposition to the combination controlled by Claus Spreckels arrived in Portland last Saturday on his way to Victoria, where he was going for his health. Mr Welch took a room at the Esmond hotel intending to continue his journey the next day, but he was taken ill on the evening of his arrival, and kept constantly growing worse until yesterday morning when death relieved him.

Mrs Welch was informed of her husband's illness by wire on Monday night, but being out of the city, she did not receive the dispatch until two days later. She then left at once and arrived here on the 10 40 train yesterday morning too late to see her husband alive.

The remains of Mr Welch were taken to the undertaking rooms of DeLin & Holman to be embalmed and will be shipped to his former home in San Francisco to-day accompanied by his sorrowing wife.

HIS LIFE IN SAN FRANCISCO.

The subjoined dispatch briefly reviewing the business relations of the deceased in San Francisco, was received from that city yesterday evening.

SAN FRANCISCO July 25

Andrew Welch who died in Portland this morning was a well known business man of this city, having been one of the foremost in commercial circles for over twenty years. He came to this coast from Scotland in 1860 and after a short sojourn in British Columbia, came to San Francisco and entered the commercial world. For the past twenty years he has carried on a commission business, and was interested to a great extent in the production of sugar cane and the manufacture of sugar. He has held the position of president of the American Sugar Refinery having resigned but a short while ago. At the time of his death he was a director of that establishment.

Deceased had been suffering from a complication of stomach troubles for about six months and these, with overwork, caused his death. A wife, three sons and one daughter are left by the deceased.

CLEARING HOUSE QUARTERS.

The Rooms Present a Fine Appearance—The Business Transacted.

The clearing house presents an elegant appearance since the new furniture was put in. The long, double desk of old oak is divided into twelve compartments, each numbered and each furnished with pens and ink and a convenient box for blanks, etc., and before each is a handsome old oak chair. The manager, Mr Hartman, has a neat desk near the door, where he can keep an eye on all that is going on and receive the balance slips from the messengers.

The business of the clearing house is now transacted very rapidly, the messengers of the various banks having become accustomed to their numbers and got the hang of the work. Yesterday the clearances amounted to $270,060 11, and the balances to $55,011 94. The clearing was done inside of five minutes, and soon after the $55,011 94 was paid in coin and distributed.

In some clearing houses the balances are paid in checks, and these checks being turned in the next day swell the amount of the clearances. Here, every day the balances are paid up in coin at once. The balances yesterday were the largest since the clearing house started.

THE OTHER SIDE.

What Pon Sea, the Interpreter, Has to Say of the Murder of Lee Yick by Chee Gong.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In THE OREGONIAN of Wednesday, July 24 under the heading "To Save Chee Gong's Neck" is a statement that "Seid Back the well known Chinese merchant, has talked with Governor Pennoyer in behalf of the condemned man and was told to set himself to do what he could in the way of getting up a petition praying for clemency." To this is added the statement that Seid Back believes that Chee Gong is innocent, else he would not take the part the part he is taking in the case.

This is not Seid Back's first appearance in this case. He was among those most active in preparing and conducting the defense though not prominent before the court, and there is no reason to suppose that he is in possession of any facts tending to show that the convicted man is the victim of a conspiracy which were not disclosed in the trial. He espoused the cause of the defendants, and having failed to secure their acquittal, he develops the spirit of the true Chinaman by fighting to the last. He is worried more to have been defeated by the verdict of the jury than because Chee Gong is to be hanged.

As to what the other "well known moralist" is reported to have said "it certainly should not go far to influence the executive in the exercise of the pardoning power." Such a statement as he makes ought not to influence anyone and this is particularly the case with the statements of the Chinese actors who he says would not make affidavit that Chee Gong was not in the theatre on the night of the 6th of November. All the witnesses agreed that the house was full on the occasion and how could the actors on the stage tell who was in the house? The statement is simply ridiculous. The alleged testimony of the Chinese doctor was before the jury, as well as that of several other witnesses who swore that Chee Gong was in his room at the time the murder was committed but the fact is the attempted alibi was so manifestly a trumped up affair that instead of tending to show the defendant not guilty, it did much to establish his guilt.

The accused man was twice tried and on both occasions he was ably defended and all the testimony which could be produced in his behalf was before the juries. In both instances they found him guilty. It is true that two others indicted with him escaped conviction of murder in the first degree and one of them was acquitted altogether but their escape is less to be attributed to their want of actual participation in the crime than to the fact that the fatal blow was struck by Chee Gong and the juries thought it enough to hang the man who actually killed the deceased. There is no desire on the part of any one to cause an innocent person to suffer for such a crime. There is no doubt that the young man Lee Yick, was most foully and brutally murdered in a public hall in this city that this man was shown, by the most positive and direct evidence to have stabbed him to the brain while he was quietly looking on at a play at the theater. He was wholly unarmed and not suspecting the least danger and now when his murderer has been caught and tried and convicted and tried and convicted again a few interested persons concoct a theory of his innocence and parade it before the public hoping to influence the executive to let a cold blooded and deliberate murderer go unwhipped of justice. The verdict of two juries that this man is guilty of murder ought to be worthy of more consideration by the governor than the maudlin sentimentalism of a miscellaneous rabble.

Chee Gong is the murderer of Lee and having been so found to be by the juries that have tried him he ought to answer for his crime as the law directs.

Hotel Register at Stout's and Tinker's—Fort Canby's Guests

The beach at Ilwaco is already a scene of considerable activity. Most of the cottages are occupied and quite a number of tents have been pitched by those desiring only a portable residence. Thus far it has been pretty cool, and the cottagers and campers have suffered little from heat. The water is also rather cool if not cold enough to deter people from taking a bath. Some of the campers go in twice a day regularly.

The hotels are well filled and the indications are that accommodations will be scarce in a few weeks more. When the T J Potter was at Ilwaco on her last trip there were registered from Portland

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP

R. H Haskins Purchases the Well Known Business of Chas Abrahams, at 86 Washington.

The many friends of Mr R H Haskins, who for the past three years has been chief accountant for the large wholesale house of Whittier Fuller & Co of this city, will be pleased to learn that the young gentleman has at last concluded to go into business on his own account and with this in view he yesterday completed arrangements for the purchase of the well known stand of Charles Abrahams at No 86 Washington street. This stand has long been noted as one of the best kept and most attractive fruit confectionery and cigar establishments of Portland and as the location is most central its trade has long been reckoned as among the largest of any similar place in the metropolis. Mr Haskins will still keep his position in the counting rooms of the firm he has so long served and with this end in view he has retained the services of Mr E. M Stearns a popular young business man who will have complete charge of the new establishment. It will be the aim of the new proprietor to keep constantly on hand a most complete stock of the very best brands of all kinds of cigars and tobaccos the freshest and choicest lines of domestic and imported candies, as well as all kinds of luscious fruits. A feature of the stand during the summer months will be the Arctic soda fountain, and Mr Haskins wishes to state here that he will use in his soda only the best natural fruit juices. The gentleman hopes by a course of fair treatment and the promptest and most courteous attention to his customers to merit the patronage of the best people of the city, and he extends a cordial invitation to all his acquaintances to visit him at his new place of business.

THE STAGE

CORDRAY'S MUSEE AND THEATER.—As usual there was a large house at this popular theater last night to witness the ever popular play "Fanchon the Cricket." The play was admirably presented and the audience were well pleased. Miss Essie Tittle as the heroine of the play finds ample scope for exercising her diverse talents, and her representation of the character meets with entire satisfaction. Fanchon the Cricket will remain on the boards the remainder of the week.

NEW PARK THEATER.—Another good house greeted the production of the taking comedy "A Bunch of Keys," at the New Park theater last night. There is much in this play to provoke laughter as the applause last night well testified. The many ludicrous situations with which the play abounds accurately presented were greatly appreciated. It is a play that appeals to a mixed audience such as witnessed the performance last night. Matinee to-morrow afternoon.

KATTI THE FAMILY HELP.—Next week "Katti the Family Help" will be produced at the New Park theater, Marietta Nash assuming the title role. Speaking of this play the Boston Journal says

The preliminary season of the Boston Museum opened last evening with the performance for the first time in America of the farcical dramatic comedy by Charles T Fawcett entitled "Katti the Family Help." Miss Marietta Nash who appeared in the title role giving a piece of clever originality as a German maid of all work, in which she contrived to infuse novelty and life into a character that might easily have lapsed into conventionality. The delineations of the quaint Teutonic maid in manifest unconsciousness of mirth provoking scenes of which she was the center possessed a peculiar fascination, and her clever dancing with massive wooden shoes elicited hearty applause.

Popular prices—10 20 30 and 40 cents—will be charged.

A TERRIBLE DEATH.

Leopold Knopke Instantly Killed by a Falling Embankment.

He Was Employed on the Johnson Creek Sewer—Buried Beneath Eight Feet of Earth—Two Others Escape.

Another laborer within the past month, has met death in a sewer excavation, beneath a crushing mass of earth. The victim this time is Leopold Knopke, a German, about 35 years of age, employed on the Johnson creek sewer, at the intersection of Twenty-eighth and K streets. Knopke was in the employ of Bays and Jeffrey, the contractors, and at the time of the accident, about 4 30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, was working in the company of two other laborers at the bottom of the excavation at a depth of ten or twelve feet.

Mr Bays was standing above at the side of the excavation, superintending the work. He saw the bank give way and shouted to the men below to run for their lives. Two of the men did so, but Knopke seemed to lose all presence of mind in the excitement of impending danger. He first started for the ladder a short distance up the ditch, then went back to escape the other way and finally halted to return in the direction he had first started. He was too late however. The loosening earth caught him before he could take another step and he was buried beneath the crushing weight of eight feet of earth.

The other workmen were at once summoned and began to dig away the dirt. When they reached the bottom of the excavation they found several planks lying across the body of the unfortunate man. The nose was broken and there was some blood on the face. The chest was also badly crushed.

The coroner took the body to the morgue to prepare it for burial. As the circumstances attending the accident are so manifestly clear there will be no necessity for holding any inquest unless it be to determine whether or not the contractors are reprehensible in not providing sufficiently secure planking for keeping the banks from caving in. In excavations of that character it is the duty of contractors and employers to provide such safeguards as will insure the safety of the workmen.

The deceased is a single man and a native of Minnesota. He came to Portland from St Cloud Minn a week ago in the company of Charles Heinz and the two took a room at Wilson's boarding house, on Second street near G. Both men went to work on the sewer excavation the day after their arrival in Portland.

Knopke has no relatives except one brother who resides at St. Cloud. A dispatch was sent him last night.

THE GROWTH OF ALBANY

A Prosperous City With an Encouraging Outlook But No Boom.

Immigration is pouring into Oregon. Every avenue that leads into the state is thronged by people hunting homes. People are coming from California Washington territory and from out the length and breadth of the Atlantic seaboard. Capitalists are coming from the money centers of the East, hunting for profitable investments. The tide of immigration is rousing the latent energy of every ambitious locality in the state and booms are being worked up to catch the eye and enlist the attention of the coming throng. Every device imaginable is resorted to to give coloring to the claims of different localities. Exaggeration is the rule rather than the exception. Every little town in Eastern Oregon is largely advertising its vast claims of superiority as a paradise for the invalid and a bonanza for the man of money.

The city of Albany has never experienced a boom for her citizens are not in the booming business. Business men discourage it and real estate men understand the reaction of booms. Albany is experiencing a steady and permanent growth, the result of the progress and development of the whole state. We are content with our prospects. Every month shows the increased value of real estate. "Noiselessly the silent fabric grew" is practically applicable to the destiny of our beautiful flourishing city. We wish to be literally understood. Albany is not sailing into the port of prosperity driven by the force of a latter-day boom. She is growing rapidly the result of the industrial forces growing around her. Some new enterprise is being continually set on foot. The capacity of our electric light plant, the finest in the state outside of Portland is being doubled to meet the requirements of the city. Our street railroad is completed and the cars which are being manufactured in this city will soon be running. The foundation for our new woolen mill is almost finished and its massiveness shows what the structure will be. Ice works have lately been erected in our city and are now turning out five tons per day. It is certainty that Albany will eventually become the center of a great railroad system is attracting the attention of cautious business men who have money to invest. A preliminary survey of a rail road from Albany to Astoria is now being made. The Oregon Pacific is threading its way eastward to its junction with the Chicago & Northwestern. The city will soon feel the impulse of these rail road lines and will doff her rural airs and don the attire of metropolitan importance. Real estate values will double, treble and quadruple in the next two years. Mark the prediction for this is the history of development of which Spokane Falls Seattle Tacoma and other towns on the coast are established precedents.

CARD FROM MANAGER CORDRAY,

Many citizens have made inquiries in regard to children visiting the Museo and Theatre wanting to know if we had a special day for children. In reply we beg to state that it is customary with places of amusement of this kind to have a day set apart for children and in order to comply with this request we will make Saturday of each week children's day, and as a special favor to school children we will admit pupils of the public schools on our Saturday matinees at half price, namely ten cents. Agent at the entrance to the Musee will deliver tickets to pupils that will entitle them to visit both performances for ten cents. Parents can always rely on the performance being respectable, educational and of the most refined character. Every effort will be made to entertain the little folks and send them home with smiling faces. These prices for pupils will go into effect next Saturday July 27th.

For quick raising, the Royal Baking Powder is superior to all other leavening agents. It is absolutely pure and wholesome and of the highest leavening power. It is always uniform in strength and quality and never fails to make light, sweet, most palatable and nutritive food. Bread, biscuits, muffins, cake, etc., raised with Royal Baking Powder may be eaten hot without distressing results to the most delicate digestive organs. It will keep in any climate without deterioration.

Prof H. A. Mott, U. S. Government Chemist, after examining officially the principal baking powders of the country, reported

"The Royal Baking Powder is absolutely pure, for I have so found it in many tests made both for that company and the United States Government.

"Because of the facilities that company have for obtaining perfectly pure cream of tartar, and for other reasons dependent upon the proper proportions of the same, and the method of its preparation, the Royal Baking Powder is undoubtedly the purest and most reliable baking powder offered to the public.
